6. "D" class poles used for saw-benches will not be charged for unless removed. They must, however, be marked by a Forest Officer before felling, and if removed will be charged for at schedule rates. [This will not apply to clear felling coupes.]

Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them, after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. (2) The amount fixed under sub-section (1) shall not exceed one-half of the difference between--

(a) the amount which the Collector estimates to be the usual salami for a like area of land, in the vicinity, similar in its description and its advantages to the land as it is at the time of the settlement, and

PART IV

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council, Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council, and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 2856L.C.—10th July, 1935.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Development Bill, 1935, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by them is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Development Bill, 1935.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal Development Bill, 1935, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 8th March, 1935, have the honour to submit this our Report with the Bill as amended by us annexed. All matter omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and all new matter inserted has been underlined :—

1. The Bill was published in English in the Calcutta Gazette of the 14th February, 1935, before introduction.

2. The Committee met for the first time in Calcutta on the 26th March, 1935, continued its sittings in Darjeeling on the 13th May, 1935, and concluded them on the 22nd May, 1935.

3. We consider that the Bill has been so altered as to require republication.

4. The changes made in the Bill are as follows :—

Preamble.—We have modified the preamble to give greater emphasis to the real purpose of the Bill, viz : to provide for the development of lands in Bengal, the levy merely being a means by which that purpose is to be fulfilled.

Clause 2.—We have inserted a definition of “agricultural lands” in clause 2 (a1) to include lands used for the purpose of growing vegetables and the like.

We have substituted “notified area” for “benefited area” throughout the Bill, as being more appropriate. The definition of benefited area has therefore been omitted. The definition of the new phrase “notified area” has been provided for in clause 2 (5a).

We have made a slight emendation in the definition of Collector in clause 2 (2).

We have revised the definition of “improvement work” in clause 2 (4) to make it clear that it includes works of improvement constructed before the commencement of the Act.

We have inserted a definition of “notified area” consequential on the substitution of this phrase for “benefited area.”

The alteration in the definition of “period of objection” in clause 2 (6) is, in part, consequential. It has also been simplified.

Clause 3.—The changes in this clause are consequential upon the revised definition of improvement work in clause 2 (4).

Clause 4.—We have revised clause 4 (a) to provide for the giving of as full a description as practicable of an improvement work in the notification to be published under clause 3.

Clause 5.—We have simplified the provisions of this clause, and have modified sub-clauses (1) and (3) to make the intention clearer. We have also omitted the words “and such declaration shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court or in any other manner whatsoever”, in sub-clause (1), as unnecessary.

Clause 5 (2) (b) has been reproduced in new clause 5A.

Clause 5A.—The first part of this clause takes the place of clause 5 (2) (b) of the Bill as introduced, but we have provided that the Local Government shall only impose the improvement levy when it is satisfied that the notified area has benefited from the improvement work.

We have inserted an important proviso requiring that, before an improvement levy is imposed, the proposal shall have the recommendation of the Legislative Council.

Clause 5B.—We consider that in so far as it may be decided upon to impose an improvement levy in respect of the Damodar and Bakreswar canals, to which an indirect reference is made in the statement of objects and reasons, this should be provided for specifically in the Bill by proposed clause 5B instead of waiting for a resolution to be passed under clause 5A.

Clause 6.—In sub-clause (1), we have made it clear that the officer appointed to prepare the estimate under this sub-clause shall hear any objections that may be submitted to him.

We have also altered the proviso to make it clear that an estimate may be made on the assumption that the land has produced or will produce crops other than the staple crop.

We have redrafted clause 6 (2) to provide for the publication of estimates by the Board of Revenue and for consideration of objections and suggestions to the estimates by the Board. Thereafter the Local Government may reject the estimate or may, by notification, accept it with or without modification.

By clause 6 (3) we have provided for the revision of the estimate in certain cases.

Clause 7.—We have simplified the provisions of this clause and reduced the period for which the price may be fixed from 10 to 5 years.

Clause 8.—We have entirely recast this clause which deals with the incidence of improvement levy on agricultural lands.

Clause 8A.—We have inserted this new clause because we think that it will be impossible to prevent increased salami from being realised by landlords or raiyats where land benefited by improvement work is settled or resettled by them after the imposition of an improvement levy and that provision should be made for a part of the increase in the amount of salami obtainable by such landlords or raiyats being paid as improvement levy.

This decision was reached by a majority of non-official members, and the official members abstained from taking part in the voting.

Clause 9.—This clause reproduces, with verbal alterations, the substance of clause 9 (1) of the Bill as introduced which lays down the maximum limit of the levy which may be imposed on non-agricultural lands included within a notified area.

Clause 9A.—This clause reproduces, with slight verbal alteration, sub-clauses (a) and (b) of clause 9 (2) of the Bill as introduced.

Clause 9AA.—In this clause we have made provision for the determination by the Collector—

- (i) of the amount of levy payable for non-agricultural lands, and
- (ii) of its manner of payment—

(a) in the case of increased capital profit in one lump sum, and

(b) in case of increased recurring profit, at an annual rate.

In sub-clause (2) of clause 9AA we have provided that no improvement levy shall be imposed unless the amount has been determined by the Collector within ten years from the date of the completion of the improvement work.

Clause 9B.—We have made provision by this clause for the payment by instalments of an improvement levy assessed in one sum under sub-clause (a) of clause 9AA and for recovery of arrears with interest.

Clause 9C entitles a person liable to pay an improvement levy at an annual rate under clause (b) of sub-clause (1) of clause 9AA to commute his liability on agreed terms. It follows in the main the wording of clause 9(e) of the Bill as introduced.

Clause 9D is new and makes specific provision for the publication of the date of the completion of an improvement work: it is necessitated by clause 9AA (2).

Clause 10.—The changes are either consequential or of a drafting character to make the intention clearer.

Clause 10A.—This clause is new and provides for the issue of a notice of demand on every person liable to pay an improvement levy by which we ensure that information is given to each person of his liability, before the stage is reached when he should, if he so desires, appeal.

Clause 10B.—This reproduces with modifications the provisions of clause 13 of the Bill as introduced. But it allows revision by the Collector at this stage and it also provides for the re-publication of the statement prepared under section 10 before the presumption of correctness is attached to it.

Clauses 11 and 11A.—We have reproduced the provisions about appeals in clauses 11 and 11A with certain important modifications as follows :—

Clause 11, as revised, provides for appeals as regards agricultural lands while clause 11A deals with those in connection with non-agricultural lands.

It will be noticed that instead of leaving the appellate authority to be prescribed by rules, as in the Bill as introduced, we have specifically mentioned the authorities to whom appeals will lie in all cases.

In the case of clause 11A, the majority of non-official members (the official members abstaining from taking part in the voting) were desirous of inserting a provision that the High Court be empowered to interfere in regard to appeals, but it was pointed out that such a provision would be ultra vires in an Act of the Local Legislature whereupon the members urged that mention should be made in the report that the Government of India be asked to introduce a Bill in the Indian Legislature containing provisions similar to those of the Calcutta Improvement (Appeals) Act, 1911 (XVIII of 1911) conferring the necessary powers on the High Court.

Clause 13.—We have omitted this clause and have provided in new clause 10B for the re-publication of the statement prepared under section 10 before the presumption of correctness is attached to it.

Clause 14.—The changes made in clause 14 are consequential.

Clause 16.—The changes made in sub-clause (1) are consequential.

Sub-clause (2) has been revised to provide for payment of interest on arrears of improvement levy at a rate not exceeding  $6\frac{1}{4}$  per cent. per annum. The reference to the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act in the sub-clause as introduced has been omitted as unnecessary. We have omitted sub-clauses (3) to (5) of clause 16 in the Bill as introduced, and have provided a new clause 16A on the lines of section 82 of Ben. Act III of 1876 dealing with the power of the Collector to contract with any person for collection of the improvement levy.

Clause 16A.—This is in substitution of sub-clauses (3) to (5) of clause 16 referred to above.

Clause 16B.—This clause is new and provides for refund of the improvement levy in those cases in which it is subsequently found to be not payable.

Clause 17.—The reference to costs has been omitted from this clause as being unnecessary in view of the provisions of new clause 29A.

Clause 18.—We have removed certain restrictions from this clause so as to make it of more general application and more useful for the purposes of the inquiries contemplated.

Clause 19A.—We have re-numbered sub-clause (3) of clause 19 as a separate clause 19A as this provision is of a more general application.

Clause 19B.—In sub-clause (1) we have provided that no person who pays an improvement levy under the Bill shall be liable to pay any rates, dues or charges to the Government under any other Act in return for any benefit derived from such improvement work.

In sub-clause (2) we have made provision for those cases in which there are existing agreements under the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876.

Clause 20.—The changes are purely consequential. We have also corrected the reference to the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876, from section "75" to "74".

Clause 21.—We have slightly modified this clause in order to bring out the intention more clearly.

Clauses 22 and 23.—The changes are of a purely drafting character.

Clause 24.—In sub-clause (2), we have made it clear that the application of the clause is restricted to artificial obstructions.

We have omitted the reference to costs of the hearing as unnecessary.

Sub-clause (4) has been revised by reducing the penalties. The other changes in this sub-clause are merely verbal.

We have omitted sub-clause (5).

Clause 26.—We have revised this clause so as to prevent claims to compensation for damages caused by the revival of dead or decayed rivers.

We have omitted sub-clause (a), and have provided that such cases of injury, damages or loss should be governed by clause 27.

Clause 27.—We have altered sub-clause (1), of this clause and have provided that persons suffering loss in the circumstances mentioned shall not be entitled to any compensation under any other law, but may apply to the Collector for such compensation as may be granted under the provisions of the Bill.

Sub-clause (2) has been reproduced in clause 31B.

Clause 28.— This clause has been recast.

Under sub-clause (2) the award of compensation by the Collector will be regulated by rules. As apportionment disputes cannot suitably be decided by the Collector provision has been made in sub-clause (3) for the reference of such disputes to the Court. Court has been defined as in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

Clause 29 has been revised to provide specifically for appeals to the Commissioner of the Division subject to revision by the Board of Revenue, and not to an authority to be prescribed by rules as in clause 29 of the Bill as introduced.

Clause 29A.—This clause provides for the award of costs in appellate and revisional proceedings and for the recovery of the same. Cf. sub-clause (2) of original clause 11. The reference to costs in clause 17 has accordingly been omitted.

Clause 30.—We have entirely re-cast sub clauses (b) and (c) of this clause dealing with the question of the restriction on the enhancement of rent in regard to lands settled after the imposition of an improvement levy, in order to make the intention of the provisions more clear, and we have added a provision to prevent contracts for the evasion of these restrictions by commuting rents for lump payments.

Clause 31.—We have simplified this clause so as to make it of general application.

Clause 31A.—This clause is new. We consider this saving clause to be necessary. It is based on section 34 of Ben. Act VI of 1920.

Clause 31B.—This provision reproduces with slight modifications sub-clause (2) of clause 27 of the Bill as introduced which dealt with the bar to suits for compensation.

Clause 33.—The changes are purely consequential on the emendations made in the respective clauses of the Bill under which rules are to be framed.

The Committee, by the decision of a majority of the non-official members, decided that mention should be made in this report of a proposal which emanated from a member to insert a provision in the Bill to the following effect :—

“30A. In a benefited area as defined by this Act a raiyat having a right of occupancy shall be entitled upon payment to his immediate landlord of an amount equivalent to two years’ rent as salami to acquire the rights of a raiyat at a fixed rate of rent.”

The Committee desire to add that as the matter was of such outstanding importance they felt that, without specific instructions, it would be better, instead of coming to a decision as to the insertion, or otherwise, of such a provision in the Bill as reported on by them, to leave the matter to be dealt with in open Council should any member desire to raise the question by the moving of an amendment on the floor of the House under the provisions of the Rules and Standing Orders.

The Committee recommend that the Bill, as reported on by them, be passed.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Narendra Kumar Basu, M.L.C.

Clause 5B.—I am not in favour of making the provisions of the Bill retrospective.

Clause 24.—There ought to be a provision for the payment of the costs of the modification in suitable cases.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Sarat Kumar Roy, M.L.C.

The main ground of my objection to the Bill is that it overlooks the root causes which have led to the bad drainage and the resultant water-logging and other mischievous consequences in Bengal. It is true that the situation is extremely deplorable and urgently calls for a remedy, but for that reason, one should not forget that the evil arose from unrestricted drawing off of water from the river Ganges in Upper India, the erection of innumerable railway and other embankments with inadequate outlets for discharge of surplus water and such other things over which the agriculturists of Bengal have practically no hand at all, and hence for the consequences of which they cannot be held responsible. At any rate, the landlords of Bengal ought not to be victimised for the mischievous consequences that have followed. But curiously enough the Government of Bengal have thought it proper to impose the levy on the agriculturists and the landlords alone, to provide funds for a remedy of this evil. Clearly the Government should have sought the remedy elsewhere.

The landlords of Bengal are already finding great difficulty in realising rents from their tenants. Though it is claimed that the tenants' financial position will be greatly improved by the development of their lands in the way proposed, it is apprehended that on the contrary, the tenants of Bengal will be still further embarrassed by the new levy, inasmuch as the levy will, I am afraid, in many instances, exceed the rent they are now paying. Hence, the so-called improvement, instead of being a blessing, will prove a burden on them and that will add to their difficulty in paying rents. Consequently, the landlords will also be greatly embarrassed. It would, therefore, have been much wiser for the Government to seek the remedy by other means.

In any case, I think, the above facts ought not to be lost sight of in framing the details of this legislative measure. I, therefore, strongly protest against the following provisions of this Bill:—

Clause 3.—There is hardly any justification for imposing the levy on non-agricultural lands. The holders of such lands will not derive any benefit directly, just as others in the country also will not do. Hence, it is not equitable to include the former while excluding, for the same reason, the latter. I, therefore, object to the words "or the profits from any land not used for agricultural purposes" in lines 6 and 7 of this clause.

Clause 6.—I think the principle underlying section 39 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, regarding selection of the crop for determining the increased profit of any land, should be followed invariably. I, therefore, object to the proviso to this clause and particularly to the amendment made thereto by the Select Committee.

Clause 8A.—It is doubtful if a landlord will succeed in realising a salami in every case he makes a settlement of his  khas  lands with tenants. Hence, if the Collector imposes a levy on such landlord on the assumption that a salami is obtainable by him, the landlord will have to bear it from his own pocket. I, therefore, strongly oppose the imposition of a levy on estimated salami and would, therefore, suggest the deletion of the new clause 8A inserted by the Select Committee.

I protest against the insertion of the remarks in the report regarding the proposed 30A. I think, in making such a suggestion, we would clearly exceed our authority. This clause, if inserted in the Bill, will affect seriously the existing land laws of Bengal, and it is not fair to attempt to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act by the back door, as has been sought by the proposed amendment. Hence, I cannot subscribe to the remarks made in this connection in the report.

There are several other defects in the amendments proposed by the Select Committee, which I cannot support. I shall place my viewpoints on them before the Council, when the Bill will be considered by it.

Minute of dissent by Rai Bahadur Satya Kinkar Sahana, M.L.C.

Though I fully approve the main object of the Bill, rather welcome it, I cannot help thinking that there is room for difference of opinion regarding the details. I do not agree with all the provisions which are calculated to bring in complications and to antagonise numerous sections of the people to such an extent as to create great obstacle to the proper functioning of the Bill passed into an Act. In the Statement of Objects and Reasons of the Bill it has been mentioned that this Bill is mainly intended to avoid an impending disaster caused by the inconsiderate protective embankments, the progeny of the desire of profit of the Railway and Steamer Companies. It is the first bounden duty of every Government to improve the sanitation, agriculture, industry and other sources of wealth of the country from the revenue of the country; it is more so with our Government as the decadence of the decadent areas in Bengal set in within the last 150 years. Smarting under an unjust financial arrangement our province has got a penurious coffer. Considering all this the people, though they have long ago crossed the taxable limit, do not object to a levy for the purpose of the improvement of the decadent areas and so avoid a disaster. But why the levy should be made permanent and not temporary or only for that period by which the capital expenditure together with a reasonable interest be realized, passes my comprehension. The fact that crores of rupees that the Irrigation Department spent since its inception was mostly spent over the navigable waterways of East Bengal, but when the question of reviving the dead and dying rivers of Central and West Bengal becomes imperative a levy is to be imposed, cannot but cause heartache; but if that levy be made permanent, the sense of justice of the people cannot but be shocked.

Clause 5A.—There should be a clear proviso to the clause that the levy shall not continue longer than the period required for the realisation of the capital expenditure together with interest.

Clause 5B.—There are strong rumours of suspicion that the main object of the Development Bill is to realise the money, not very judiciously spent, over the Damodar and Bakreswar Canals by imposing a levy on the hard-hit agriculturists. This clause empowering the Government to impose a levy in respect of the said canals without a recommendation from the Bengal Legislative Council is calculated to confirm their suspicion and to strike them with panic. This cannot be desirable. This clause should be deleted.

Clause 9AA (1) (a).—The principle of the Bill as mentioned in the Statement of Objects and Reasons is to impose the levy on the basis of increased profits which was understood to be increased recurring profits or increment in the annual yield. In this clause "increased capital profits" have been introduced. Those words are explained to mean increment in salami or price or consideration, i.e., increased value. The introduction of this new principle will, I fear, lead to endless complications and litigations. There can be little doubt that in the improved areas the capital profits of agricultural lands in the shape of salami or value will increase as well. If the capital profits for non-agricultural lands be made leviable, what justification there will be for exempting those for agricultural lands? Further, many people will try to avoid the levy by making false entries in the documents about the salami or the consideration or the class of the land and that will cause a double loss of stamp revenue and levy revenue. I think the principle of levying the increased capital profits should not be introduced and this sub-clause should be deleted.

I sign the Report of the Select Committee with the above remarks and reserve the right of moving amendments during the discussion of the Bill in the Council.

Minute of dissent by Khan Bahadur Md. Abdul Momin, M.L.C.

I do not agree to the principle of the Bill with regard to the levy of the Irrigation Tax. I do not recognise the right of Government to any share of the profit, but only to the recovery of the amount of actual cost incurred.

I also object to some of the provisions of the Bill which I shall state at a later stage.

Minute of dissent by Munindra Deb Rai Mahasai, M.L.C., on the Bengal Development Bill, 1935.

I welcomed this Bill as a beneficent measure when it was first introduced in the Council, but at the same time I did not fail to point out that it was not an ideal one and was capable of improvement in the Select Committee stage. As I was in Europe when the Select Committee sat at Darjeeling I could neither participate nor listen to the discussions that took place at that stage. I think it is the primary duty of Government to provide for irrigation of the country under its charge and not to tax the people for the same, but in the present circumstances no improvement is possible without further taxation. I think Government should not share any profit accruing from improvement of land but may recover the amount of actual cost incurred with interest on the capital invested. I have also got objections to some of the provisions of the Bill which I intend to submit when the Bill will come up to the House for discussion.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3041L.C.—1st August, 1935.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 20 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules, 1920, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 30th July, 1935, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE CALCUTTA MUNICIPAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1935.

A
BILL

further to amend the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

Ben. Act
III of 1923.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.            1. This Act may be called the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 228 of Bengal Act III of 1923.            2. In section 228 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, for the words "one hundred feet" the words "two hundred feet" shall be substituted.

J. W. MCKAY,

Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 228 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, at present empowers the Corporation of Calcutta to require the owner of any premises to obtain a sufficient supply of water, provided such supply can be furnished from a main not more than one hundred feet distant from the nearest part of such premises. The object of this Bill is to amend this section so as to give power to the Corporation to direct the owner to obtain a sufficient supply of water from a main situated within 200 feet from the nearest part of the premises, with a view to ensure an adequate supply of filtered water in bustees.

No. 3042L.C.—1st August, 1935.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 20 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules, 1920, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 30th July, 1935, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL VILLAGE SELF-GOVERNMENT (TEMPORARY PROVISIONS) BILL, 1935.

A

to provide for certain matters in connection with certain elections for union boards held before the commencement of the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1935.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make special provision for the term of office of members of union boards in certain cases in which general elections were held before the commencement of the Bengal Village Self Government (Amendment) Act, 1935, and for the removal of any doubts as to the validity of such elections and of appointments of members made in such cases ;

Ben. Act VIII of 1935.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Village Self-Government (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1935.

Term of office of members of union boards in certain cases, and validity of certain elections and appointments.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919—

Ben. Act V of 1919.

(1) Where a general election has been held for a union board before the commencement of the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1935 (hereinafter referred to as the amending Act), but after such election the first meeting, at which a quorum is present, of the newly elected and appointed members of such union board has not been held, the term of office of the formerly elected and appointed members of the union board shall be governed by the provisions of section 11 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, as if it had not been amended by clause (1) of section 6 of the amending Act.

(2) Where a member has been duly elected at such general election, or has been duly appointed after such general election but before the commencement of the amending Act, such member shall be deemed to be duly elected or appointed, as the case may be, under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, as amended by the amending Act, and his election or appointment shall be deemed to be valid for all purposes of the said Act, as so amended.

J. W. MCKAY,
Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under clause (1) of section 6 of the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1935, which came into force on the 4th July, 1935, the term of office of members of union boards has been extended from three to four years. In a number of unions, however, elections have already been held and in a few others appointments also made but the new boards could not be declared as duly constituted before the amending Act came into force; this has given rise to an anomalous position, viz., that the persons, who have been duly elected or appointed and whose election or appointment, therefore, remains valid even after the commencement of the amending Act, will have to wait for about a year before the new boards can be constituted. It is considered that the best way of removing the anomaly will be to have such union boards, duly constituted as early as possible. This Bill accordingly seeks to provide that, in the case of these union boards, the term of office of the formerly elected and appointed members of the union board will, subject to the proviso to section 11 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, expire on the date of the first meeting of the newly elected and appointed members of the Board at which a quorum is present.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3223L.C. — 17th August, 1935. — The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts (Bengal Amendment) Bill, 1934, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by them, is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts (Bengal Amendment) Bill, 1934.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts (Bengal Amendment) Bill, 1934, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 30th July, 1935, have the honour to submit this our Report with the Bill, embodying amendments recommended by us, annexed. All matter omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and all new matter inserted has been underlined.

(1) The Bill was published in English in the Calcutta Gazette of the 29th November, 1934, before introduction.

(2) The Committee met for the first time on the 5th August, 1935, and concluded its sitting on the 6th August, 1935.

(3) We do not consider that the Bill has been so altered as to require republication.

(4) The changes made in the Bill are as follows :—

Clause 1.—We have completed the year of the Act in clause 1 (1).

Clause 3.—The figures “141” were a misprint for “114”. This has been corrected.

Clause 5.—We have redrafted clause 5 so as to empower the Local Government to invest a Munsif with jurisdiction up to three thousand five hundred rupees so long as he holds his Court at a place where the Court of a Subordinate Judge is held.

Clause 7.—We have reduced the limits of “one thousand rupees” and “five hundred rupees” to “seven hundred and fifty” and “three hundred” respectively, as we consider the lower limits more desirable for the present.

While we recommend that the Bill, as reported on by us, be passed, we express the hope although we are assured that there is no such intention on the part of Government, that the extended powers now provided in the Bill will not result in adversely affecting, or be used to the detriment of, the financial prospects of Munsifs in the service of Government.

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, in the manner hereinafter appearing so as to partition the occupancy and to remove the hardships of the co-tenants, by fixing their respective liabilities ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Commencement.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Local Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint.

Insertion of new section 26K in Act VIII of 1885.

2. (1) After section 26J of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following section shall be added :—

Partition of occupancy holding by co-tenants.

“26K. (a) Co-tenants of any occupancy holding shall have the right to partition the land with separate liability for rent in respect of each separated share.

(b) On the application by a co-tenant for assessment of his proportionate share of rent, the landlord shall be bound to grant the applications and thereafter the liability of such co-tenants or tenants shall be limited to the rent assessed for his separate share.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The system of joint responsibilities for the payment of rents by co-tenants helped many dishonest agents of landlords to ruin the poor tenants by grabbing their lands.

- In the interest of justice therefore liability of each tenant shall be fixed to save them from ruination.

further to amend the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, in the manner hereinafter appearing so as to extend the powers of the chairman of a municipality to make occupiers also liable for municipal rates, and to make better provision for the quick despatch of business in the appeal committees of the municipality;

6 & 7 Geo.
V, c. 37;
9 & 10 Geo.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Bengal Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 52. 3. In section 52, delete the words :—
(1) "The Commissioners at a meeting specially convened for the purpose or" from the beginning.
(2) Delete the second paragraph.

Amendment of section 103. 4. For sub-section (4) of section 103, substitute the following :—
"Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Registration Act, 1908, or any rules made thereunder, the registering officer shall, on the requisition of the chairman made in writing and under the common seal of the municipality, register a document executed by the chairman or a member of the municipality on behalf of the municipality without requiring the presence of the chairman or the member concerned at the registration office."

Amendment of section 132. 5. In section 132 add the following words at the end :—
"and the occupier of the same, each being liable to pay one-half of the consolidated rate"

Amendment of section 149. 6. In sub-section (1) of section 149 in the third line substitute "four" in place of "two".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is desirable that the privilege granted to the chairman of a district board in the matter of registration of documents should also be extended to the chairman of a municipality. The curtailment of the power of the chairman of a municipality introduced in section 52 should be repealed and the provision of section 45 of the old Act should be restored with a view to ensure the dignity and prestige of the chairman. It is equitable that one-half of the consolidated rate for a holding should be paid by the occupier. This will also ensure better collection of the municipal rates. The appeal committee of a municipality should be enlarged to consist of five members so that the absence of a single member may not impede the work of the committee resulting in delays and inconvenience to the ratepayers.

No. 3433L.C.—7th September, 1935.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 20 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules, 1920, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 19th August, 1935, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

further to amend the Village Self-Government Act, 1919.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, in the manner herein-after appearing ;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Village Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 72 of Bengal Act V of 1919.

2. After sub-section (2) of section 72 the following shall be added namely :—

“ A union bench may allow a convicted person time if he prays for it for the paying up of his fines with a suitable person as security.”

Amendment of section 74.

3. After section 74 (c), the following clause shall be added namely :—

“ (d) for arrears of rent.”

Amendment of section 75.

4. In sub-section (5) of section 75 in lines 2 and 3 the words, “ or recovery of rent ” shall be omitted.

Ben. Act
V of 1919.
5 & 6 Geo.
V., c. 61 ;
6 & 7 Geo.
V., c. 37 ;
9 & 10
Geo. V., c.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In many villages of Bengal power has been bestowed upon the union benches and courts to try cases.

If the union bench orders in accordance with power which the union bench possesses to imprison one guilty person for 7 days in case of non-realisation of fines (which is extended up to Rs. 25), the person may pray for time with suitable security for paying up his fines. As there is no such room in the Village Self-Government Act, 1919, the Bench cannot let the accused go. So it is full of inconveniences for the parties. A new provision should be added to the section 72 for the good of the parties. The power for letting the guilty person go with a suitable security should be bestowed upon and added to the aforesaid clause of the Village Self-Government Act.

In many places of Bengal the zemindars and the tenants-in-chief have rents from the tenants and sub-tenants which in some places do not exceed more than Rs. 5. Sometimes it comes to a lower scale of below one rupee per year. Where there arises a necessity of a legal suit in the munsifs' courts for arrears of 3 or 4 years, it does not go more than Rs. 25, together with penalty. This process makes both the parties losers. So the parties like to have these suits filed in the union courts. But there is no provision in the Village Self-Government Act for this sort of rent suits of such amounts. So this Bill provides for the removal of unnecessary expenses in the civil court for rent suits arising out of small amounts not paid for a few years.

further to amend the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

Bengal Act
111 of 1923.

It is hereby enacted as follows : -

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of
sec. 20 of
Ben. Act 111
of 1923.

2. After sub-section (2) of section 20, the following proviso shall be added, namely :-

Provided that any person shall be entitled to vote or stand for election as a Councillor under this Act who possesses the following educational qualifications:

- (a) the Entrance or Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University, or
- (b) the High School Examination or High Madrassah Examination of the Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education, Dacca, or
- (c) the School Final Examination, Science side, conducted by the School Final Examination Board, Science side, or
- (d) the Cambridge Junior Examination under the European School Code, or
- (e) the Higher Grade School Final Examination under the European School Code, or
- (f) the Title Examination conducted by the Saraswat Samaj, Dacca, or
- (g) the Title Examination conducted by the Calcutta Sanskrit Association (or Calcutta Sanskrit Board as it was previously called) or
- (h) the Fazil Examination conducted by the Board of Central Madrassah Examinations, or
- (i) the Final Examination of the First Grade Training or Normal Schools in Bengal, or
- (j) the Final Examination of the Government School of Art.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The right to vote at the elections of the Bengal Legislative Assembly under the new constitution has been given to persons having certain educational qualifications. It seems inconsistent that the citizens of Calcutta having the aforesaid qualifications should be eligible to vote in the Legislative Assembly elections but would not be entitled to do so in the case of the elections of the Calcutta Corporation itself. Educational qualifications have also been recognised in mufassal municipalities under the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932. This Bill has been introduced to remove the aforesaid inconsistency.

The appointment of the principal officers for limited terms has led to a state of things which to say the least of it is undesirable in the interests of the ratepayers.

| Amendment to Sch. VI, cl. 1, item 35. | 4. In Schedule VI, clause 1 of the said Act, in item No. 35, column 2 of the said clause after the words "in respect of whose income income-tax" the words "on an income of not less than Rs. 2,000" shall be added.   |
| Amendment to Sch. VI, cl. 1, item 36. | 5. In Schedule VI, clause 1 of the said Act, in item No. 36, column 2 of the said clause, for the words "by whom no income-tax is payable" the following words be substituted, namely :—"By whom income-tax is not payable on an income of Rs. 2,000 or more."       |
| Amendment to Sch. VI, cl. 1, item 44. | 6. In Schedule VI, clause 1 of the said Act, in item No. 44, column 2 of the said clause for the words, "by whom no income-tax is payable" the following words shall be substituted, namely :—"By whom income-tax is not payable on an income of Rs. 2,000 or more." |

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In Schedule VI of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, which provides for license fees leviable by the Corporation, it was provided that license fees to be paid by some professional men should be Rs. 50 for those who pay income-tax and Rs. 20 for those who do not pay income-tax.

At the time when the Act was passed income-tax was not payable on incomes below Rs. 2,000. The Legislature obviously thought that the imposition of a license fee of Rs. 50 on those whose income was less than Rs. 2,000 would cause them great hardship.

Since then by temporary Acts of the Indian Legislature, the taxable income has been reduced, with the result that persons having an income of less than two thousand rupees have automatically become liable to pay double the license fees which they had paid before.

This is felt as a great burden by junior men in the profession and a burden which the Bengal Legislature never intended to impose on them. It would further seem to be undesirable that the fee leviable by the Corporation under a Bengal Act should be subject to periodical variations by the Acts of legislature whose action would be dictated by considerations which have no relation to the question of fees leviable by the Corporation.

The amendments proposed by this Bill seeks to give effect to the original intentions of the legislature which have been defeated by adventitious circumstances.

No. 955L. — 2nd November, 1935. — His Excellency the Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 18 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules, 1920, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information.

THE COURT-FEES (BENGAL THIRD AMENDMENT)
BILL, 1935.

BILL

to amend the Court-fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1935.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Court-fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1935, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Ben. Act
VII of 1935.

5 & 6 Geo.
V. c. 61 ;
6 & 7 Geo.
V. c. 37 ;
9 & 10
Geo. V,
c. 101.

Short title.      1. This Act may be called the Court-fees (Bengal Third Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 6 of
of 1935.

2. In sub-section (2) of section 6 of the Court-fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1935 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), in new sub-section (2), for the words beginning with "subject to the following conditions" and ending with "fixed by the Court" the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"subject to the condition that the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be rejected unless the plaintiff or appellant as the case may be, pays to the Court within a time to be fixed by the Court such reasonable sum on account of court-fees as the Court may direct."

section 8.

3. In section 8 of the said Act, in sub-section (1) of new section 8B, for the words "as soon as may be after the registration of the plaint or memorandum of appeal" the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"on the date fixed for the appearance of the opposite party or as soon as may be thereafter."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to correct an error in section 6 of the Court-fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1935. It has been pointed out that a plaint is registered as soon as it is received, irrespective of the fact that it may be subsequently rejected. No penalty is involved therefore in providing in section 6 that the plaint shall not be registered if the reasonable sum referred to therein is not paid ; on the other hand the present provision introduces complication in the settled procedure as to registration. The present requirement as to registration has no practical significance, and it is therefore proposed to delete it. A consequential amendment is made in section 8B. The changes proposed are practically purely verbal, the structure of the Act is not in any way affected.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council, Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council, and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION

No. 42201.L.C.—14th November, 1935.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Relief of Indebtedness Bill, 1935, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by them, annexed, is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Relief of Indebtedness Bill, 1935.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal Relief of Indebtedness Bill, 1935, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 28th August, 1935, have the honour to submit this our report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us annexed. All matter recommended to be omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and all new matter recommended to be inserted has been underlined.

2. The Bill was published in English in an Extraordinary issue of the Calcutta Gazette of the 12th August, 1935.

3. We do not consider that the Bill has been so altered by our recommendations as to require republication.

4. The Committee met for the first time in Calcutta on the 29th August, 1935, continued its sittings in Darjeeling on the 16th October, 1935, and concluded them on the 28th October, 1935.

5. The changes made in the Bill are as follows:—

In the first paragraph of the Preamble we have considered it desirable to specify clearly that the Bill is intended to provide for the relief of indebtedness of agricultural debtors.

Clause 1.—We have also for similar reasons changed the Short Title.

Clause 2, sub-clause (1).—We have included in this definition dairy farming as we consider this to be a well-recognised branch of agriculture.

Sub-clause (2).—The alteration has been made in view of the insertion of clause 9A regarding joint debts.

Sub-clause (5).—The alteration made here is consequential upon the new proviso to clause 4.

Sub-clause (8).—We have considered it desirable to omit items (i) and (ii) as we do not see any special reason for excluding these debts from the definition. We have, however, excluded from definition of debt contingent liabilities and share of produce of land payable under the system known as adhi, barga or bhag.

Item (iv) has been revised from a drafting point of view to make the intention clearer.

Items (vi) and (vii) have been replaced by new item (va) at the suggestion of the Government of India to which we have agreed.

Sub-clause (9).—We have recast the first portion of the definition of debtor to include a raiyat, under-raiyat or person who cultivates land by himself or by members of his own family or by hired labourers or by adhiaras, bargadars or bhagdars.

We have considered it desirable to include in this definition groups of persons who join in making an application under clause 9A (1).

We have omitted the second portion of the existing sub-clause (9) in regard to the finality of the decision of the Board and have reproduced it as a new clause 19A as being more suitable.

Sub-clause (15).—The change made here is purely verbal.

Sub-clause (16).—The additions to the expressions "raiyat" and "under-raiyat" are necessitated by the use of these expressions in the revised definition of debtor in sub-clause (9) referred to above.

Clause 3(2).—The omission suggested here is purely consequential to the omission of clause 8.

Clause 4.—We have modified the proviso to clause 4 so as to ensure that when a Board is dissolved, and it is not possible for the Local Government for any reason to appoint another Board, any work in connection with work already undertaken by the defunct Board, other than the making of the award, may be carried out by the Collector. The award, however, shall be made by an officer of judicial experience to be especially appointed in this behalf by the Local Government.

Clause 7.—We have considered it desirable to provide that the Local Government and not the Commissioner should be the authority to invest Boards with special powers. The other change in this clause is purely consequential.

Clause 8.—We have considered it desirable to omit this provision as, in our opinion, if a Board is given power to withdraw applications from other Boards it may lead to undesirable complications. We have, however, inserted a new clause 33A providing for the transfer of applications under clause 9 from one Board to another. We have also considered it desirable to give the Appellate Officer power to transfer applications if he considers it expedient to do so—vide new clause 34A.

Clause 9.—We have recast sub-clause (1) in order to restrict applications being made to Boards established for the area in which a debtor ordinarily resides.

Sub-clause (2).—We have omitted this sub-clause as being inappropriate. We have, however, inserted two new sub-clauses (6) and (7) in this clause providing for a further application being entertained by a Board for good and sufficient reasons.

In sub-clause (7) we have considered it desirable to make a specific provision to the effect that a Board is not to entertain a further application under sub-clause (1) or sub-clause (3) in respect of a debt which has been incurred by a debtor after the date of the first application.

This important change will ensure that the Bill should be an emergency measure only.

New clause 9A.—We have considered it desirable to include this new provision relating to settlement of debts by joint debtors.

In sub-clause (2) power is given to the Board to entertain an application by a debtor if he is jointly liable in respect of any debt and if the other joint debtors refuse to join in his application.

Clause 11.—We have revised this clause by including in it provisions for the furnishing of some more particulars in the statement of debt than were included in the original clause.

Clause 12.—We have slightly modified sub-clause (2) to provide that notice of the Board's order shall be given to all persons whose names and addresses are given in the application.

A new sub-clause (3) has been added providing that the applicant shall be examined on oath or affirmation and that the substance of such examination shall be recorded in writing by the Board. We consider that such a memorandum will be found useful in case of a revision or appeal against the order or decision of the Board.

Clause 13.—We have recast the first paragraph of sub-clause (1) to make the intention clearer. We have also altered the period during which the debtor and creditors shall submit a statement of debt under the sub-clause from two months to one month as we think the latter period adequate.

In sub-clause (2) we have omitted the proviso and reproduced it as part of the new proviso to sub-clause (3).

Sub-clause (3).—We have considered it desirable to include provisions for variation or revision of an order of the Board by review or on appeal. We have added a further proviso to cover the case where a Board has ceased to exist. The order under sub-clause (2) or sub-clause (3) may be varied or reversed by the Appellate Officer on application. In this sub-clause we have also provided for costs being allowed against the debtor if, and to such an extent as, the Board considers reasonable.

Clause 14.—In sub-clause (3) we have included the successor in interest of a debtor and have considered it desirable to include in it a provision that documents not submitted previously may be admitted as evidence later if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Civil Court that there were sufficient reasons for their non-production before the Board in the first instance.

Clause 17.—We have considered it desirable to omit the proviso to clause (b) in sub-clause (1).

We have inserted a general provision in clause 1(c) for the dismissal of applications when the Board is satisfied that the debtor is attempting to use the provisions of the Act with a view to defraud any creditor.

We have recast sub-clause (2) providing for dismissal of an application in case of transfer of any property by any debtor within two years previous to the date of such application with a view to defraud any creditor.

Clause 18.—The changes made in sub-clause (1) are with a view to make the intention clearer.

We have recast the proviso to provide that the decree of the Civil Court shall be conclusive evidence only as between the parties to the decree.

In sub-clause (2) we have included a provision that the Board before passing an order will hear the parties and consider the evidence produced.

In sub-clause (3) we have omitted the proviso as being undesirable.

The change in sub-clause (4) is merely verbal.

Clause 19.—We have omitted from clause (1) (a) the words “and may dismiss the application in respect of the remaining debts of the debtor” and from (1) (b) the words “and may dismiss the application in respect of the remaining debts” as being unnecessary.

We have modified sub-clauses (1) (b) and (1) (c) in such a manner that the provisions are to apply only when creditors, to whom is owing not less than forty per cent. or sixty per cent. of the total secured and unsecured debts, have agreed.

In the proviso to clause (1) (c) we have considered it desirable to add a provision that the terms are fair terms in the opinion of the Board.

Sub-clause (2).—We have omitted this sub-clause and reproduced it as new clause 21A which bars the application of clauses 19, 20 and 21 to debts due in respect of arrears of rent.

We have added an Explanation to this clause as to the meaning of the expressions “secured debt” and “unsecured debt.”

Clause 20.—The change in paragraph 2 is to make the intention clearer.

Clause 21.—We have considered it desirable to revise clauses (1) (a) and (1) (b) giving power to the Board to reduce the debts of a debtor to such amount as may be paid within a period not exceeding twenty years and fixing the principle upon which each instalment is to be fixed. In case the Board considers it undesirable or impracticable to reduce the debt as above the Board shall specify what portion of the immovable property of the debtor (including not more than one-third or less than one acre of his land to be left as provision towards his maintenance) shall be excluded from the sale and what of the remainder shall be sold for the payment of the debt.

We have considered it desirable to include a new sub-clause (1a) authorising the Certificate-officer to sell the property of the debtor in the manner provided in the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.

Sub-clause (2).—In the proviso we have considered it desirable to include properties which are declared by a civil court or are discovered to belong to the insolvent debtor. The other alterations are verbal.

Clause 22.—The changes in sub-clauses (2) and (3) are consequential. We have omitted sub-clause (4) as unnecessary.

Clause 23.—We have inserted a new sub-clause (1) (a1) to provide for the inclusion of a list of the movable properties of the debtor on which there is a mortgage, lien or charge.

In sub-clause (1)(d) we have included a proviso regarding the payment of the amount according to the order specified in the proviso.

New clause 23A.—We have considered it desirable to make a special provision regarding the inclusion of arrears of rent (included in an award) in a suit instituted by the landlord for the recovery of the arrears of rent accruing during the continuance of the award.

We have also considered it desirable to give power to any creditor to whom any amount is due under the award to pay to the court arrears of rent to prevent the sale of the debtor's land in execution of rent decrees.

Clause 24.—The alteration in this clause is purely consequential upon the inclusion of new clause 24A.

Clause 24A.—We have considered it desirable to provide by this clause that the provisions of Chapter XIV of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, shall apply to lands sold by a Certificate-officer under this Act.

Clause 25.—The change in sub-clause (1) is intended to provide for the case of joint-creditors. We have recast sub-clause (2) in order to give power to the Certificate-officer, in a case where he allows time to the debtor within which to pay any amount due under the award, to direct that a similar period of time shall be given to the debtor after the time fixed in the award for payment of any other amount payable thereunder.

Sub-clause (2a) repeats certain provisions of original sub-clause (2) of clause 25 as in the Bill as introduced.

We have recast sub-clause (3) to enable the Certificate-officer to sell only such portion of the property of the debtor as will be sufficient to pay all amounts payable under the award.

The changes in sub-clause (4) are consequential.

Clause 26.—The changes in sub-clause (1) are consequential. We have inserted a new sub-clause (1a) requiring the Certificate Officer to pay out of the distribution of sale-proceeds first any amount payable as costs of sale in execution of the Certificate. We have also revised sub-clause (1) (a) in view of the insertion of clause 24A.

In sub-clause (1) (b) the reference to a decree passed by a Civil Court has been omitted as being undesirable.

We have recast sub-clause (3) to make the intention clearer.

In sub-clause (4), we have omitted the opening reference to clause 21(2) as being unnecessary.

We have considered it desirable to add a proviso that in case the sale-proceeds are insufficient to meet the payment of the amounts payable under the award the Board may pass an order declaring the debtor to be an insolvent.

New clause 27A.—By this clause we have given an opportunity to the debtor to apply to the civil court to set aside an ex parte decree referred to in the proviso to sub-clause (1) of clause 18.

Clause 28.—The alteration made in this clause is to make the intention clearer.

Clause 29.—We have recast the proviso in view of the proviso added to clause 26(4). The other changes in this clause are purely verbal.

Clause 30.—In sub-clause (ii) we have considered it desirable to alter the period of six months to three months.

In sub-clause (iii) we have for similar reasons changed the "date of the signing of an award made" to "the date of an application under clause 9."

Clause 31.—The alterations are to make the intention clearer.

Clause 32.—The alterations are purely verbal.

Clause 33.—The alteration here is consequential upon the change made in sub-clause (1) (a) of clause 34.

Clause 34.—The change in sub-clause (1) (a) is to make the intention clearer. We have omitted sub-clause (1) (d) as being unnecessary.

In the proviso we have altered "an officer" to "a person" in order to enable the Local Government to appoint any person it considers suitable. The other changes are of a consequential character.

We have inserted a new sub-clause (1a) to provide that an appeal shall lie if made within thirty days.

In sub-clause (3), the addition is intended to provide that the appellant shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

A new sub-clause (7) has been added to prevent an appeal against a decision passed by the Board with the consent of the debtor and the creditor.

Clause 34A.—See the remarks under clause 8.

Clause 34AA. This new clause will give power to the Appellate Officer to give his opinion, advice or direction to a Board seeking the same.

Clause 36.—The small emendation in this clause follows the change made in clauses 33 and 34.

New clause 36A.—We have considered it desirable to bar the application of the Indian Evidence Act and the Code of Civil Procedure to proceedings before a Board. The procedure is to be laid down by rules to be made under the Act.

Clause 37.—We have recast this clause by omitting the reference to persons who are proclaimed touts as being unnecessary in view of the provision that the Board's permission is required before any agent can appear.

We have added a proviso authorising a son or husband of a party to appear before a Board even if he is a legal practitioner.

Clause 44.—We have considered it desirable to alter this clause to provide that an award shall be assignable in the manner prescribed by rules under this Act and not as a decree of a civil court.

Clause 45.—The alterations in sub-clauses 1(a) (b) and (2) are with the desire to guard against abuse and to make the intention clearer.

We have reduced the maximum penalty under this clause from seven years to three years.

Clause 46.—In sub-clause (c) we have included the Appellate Officer in order to enable his allowance to be fixed by rules. The other alterations in this clause are purely consequential, except that by the insertion of a new sub-clause (3), the power of making rules is subject to the condition that the rules are to be made after previous publication.

We recommend that the Bill, as reported on by us, be passed.

The official members of the Committee desire to make it clear that as the changes made in clauses 9, 14(3), 23A (b), 24A and 36A require the previous sanction of the Governor General, they are unable to accept responsibility for them in the absence of such sanction.

NOTE.—The signature of Dr. Naresh Chandra Sen Gupta, Mr. H. S. Suhrawardy, Khan Bahadur A. F. M. Abdur Rahman, Khan Sahib Maulvi Mohammad Bashiruddin and Babu Hem Chandra Roy Choudhury had not been received up to the time of publishing the Report.

Joint minute of dissent (by way of reservation) by the Hon'ble Khwaja Sir Nazimuddin, Mr. F. A. Sachse and Mr. H. P. V. Townend.

Government reserve the right to move any amendments to the changes proposed in the following clauses, after further consideration, viz:—

Clauses 2(a), 2(9), 9(7), 9A, 18(3), 19(1) (b) and proviso, 21, 23(1) (d), 23A, 24A, 25(2), 26(1) (a) and 34AA.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Narendra Kumar Basu, M.L.C.

I dissent from several of the provisions of the Bill as settled by the Committee.

When at the start of the proceedings, I asked the Hon'ble Member-in-charge if he could give us time or when the Bill came before the Council an idea as to the policy of Government in carrying out the measure, whether they were willing to find some money for the purposes of the Bill the Hon'ble Member declared that Government would not advance any money and was not prepared to give any financial help. That in my judgment is enough for the Council to throw the Bill out altogether. To provide for compulsion and not to provide any funds would in my opinion be tantamount to wrecking the whole system of agrarian and rural credit and to head straight for an economic revolution.

The official viewpoint was stated to be that creditors might be compelled but debtors not. If the debtor does not think it advantageous to come in for a settlement of the debts, he must not be compelled.

It is from this point of view that the provisions of clauses 9 (3) and 13 (3) have been framed.

I shall only mention here that the principal provisions to which I object are—

- (1) Clauses 3 (2) and 34—regarding the qualifications of the Chairmen of Boards having the compulsory powers and of the Appellate officers.
- (2) Clause 13 (3) and if that is retained the inadvisability and inconsistency of retaining clause 9 (3).
- (3) The retention of clause 20 and more specially the last sentence thereof postponing execution of a decree for ten years even where there is no award.
- (4) Clause 37 prohibiting the employment of lawyers before Boards which would exercise such wide powers as are contemplated.

I may mention that the opposition to my proposal for fixing the court-fees for applications by debtors under clause 9 at a nominal figure throws the intentions of the Government and its supporters into strong and lurid relief. One wonders if leaving everything to the executive even in fiscal matters would be tolerated in any other atmosphere. I am sorry that for personal reasons I am unable to make this note as full as I had intended but I reserve liberty to move amendments to the clauses not mentioned herein, in Council.

Minute of dissent by Mr. S. M. Bose, M.L.C.

In this note of dissent I shall only deal with certain general questions of principle, matters of detail being left to be dealt with by amendments at the proper time.

2. Clause 3(2).—In the case of Boards exercising powers under clause 7, it is very necessary that the Chairman, at any rate, should be an experienced judicial officer of at least ten years' standing. The Board may have to deal with difficult questions of civil law, and the Chair should have a thorough knowledge of such law. Under the Central Provinces Debt Conciliation Act, as appears from a report in the Statesman (Dak Edition, dated 24th October last) a Conciliation Board has been established at Sohagpur under the Chairmanship of a Sub-Judge. It is to be remembered that under the Central Provinces Act, debt conciliation is on an entirely voluntary basis, and even then, a judicial officer has been appointed Chairman. The argument that there are not enough judicial officers for the purpose is unsound, as the work of the civil courts will be very greatly diminished when this Act comes into operation. It is also possible as in the Central Provinces, for the Government to establish two Boards with a common Chairman. In any event, the qualifications of the Chairman should be laid down in the Act itself, and not left to be regulated by rules. Further, the services of retired judicial officers may be availed of.

3. Clause 13(3).—This clause says that if on the application of a creditor, notice is issued on a debtor calling upon him to submit a statement of his debts within one month, and if he fails to do so, the creditor's application is to be dismissed. This is against all principles of justice and equity, and the clause should be deleted. Under clause 9, either the debtor or the creditor may apply to the Board for debt-conciliation.

If the debtor applies, and the creditor fails, after notice, to submit a statement of debt, then under clause 13(2) the amount stated in the debtor's application is to be taken as correct, and no debt of which the creditor has failed to submit a statement (unless admitted by the debtor) is to be payable. But in the case of the creditor's application, if the debtor defaults, the application is to be dismissed. In all fairness, in such a case, the amount stated in the creditor's application should be taken as correct, on the analogy of clause 13(2). There are only two alternatives on principle. Either the creditor should not be allowed to apply at all under clause 9; or if he is allowed, then the same rule should prevail as in the case of the debtor's application.

The principle embodied in this sub-clause is reminiscent of archaic law where the plaintiff had to drag the defendant to the court before the court would assume jurisdiction in the matter.

4. Clause 20.—This, to my mind, is the most objectionable clause in the whole Bill and should be entirely omitted or radically modified. It negatives the principle underlying clause 19, namely, that where a large proportion of the creditors agree (40 per cent. or 60 per cent. as the case may be), and the offer seems fair to the Board, then the composition may be put through and gentle compulsion applied to the other creditors. It is understood that it is not the intention of the Government to enforce absolute compulsion, but clause 20 in effect compels the creditors to accept whatever terms are considered fair to the Board (even though not a single creditor accepts them) for otherwise their claims cannot be enforced for many years (the period of postponement may extend upto 20 years) which means practically that their claims cannot be enforced at all. If the object of the Government be to enforce naked compulsion their clause 19 is superfluous, and the Bill might then consist of a single clause 20. Attention is invited to section 20 of the Punjab Act of 1934, which provides for a certificate being given by the Board to a debtor in respect of a debt where the terms offered are (1) considered fair by the Board, and (2) are accepted by creditors holding 40 per cent. or more of the total debts. Attention is also invited to the Report of the Commission appointed to consider the question of agricultural indebtedness in the Protectorate of Zanzibar which was presided over by the Chief Justice of the Protectorate. The main step suggested in the Report was the adjustment of debts by amicable settlement through Conciliation Boards similar to those established under the Central Provinces Act and the Punjab Act. The Zanzibar Commission recommended that a Conciliation Board should consist of a Resident Magistrate, an Indian and an Arab, and should have the power to impose on the parties any adjustment which is acceptable to the debtor and to 60 per cent. in value of his creditors. In any event, the provision at the end of the clause that even if there is no award, the creditor's claim may be postponed upto ten years, is inequitable, and against all principles. Arbitrary power is given to the Board, which may instead of making an award, penalise a particular creditor by imposing an offer on him at its entire discretion, without any reference to the views of the creditors, be they secured or unsecured, and if he does not agree, his claim is postponed for a period upto ten years. There is no justification for this.

5. Clause 27.—Joint-stock Banks and Co-operative Societies should be placed exactly on the same footing, as both lend out money received from depositors. There is no exemption under the Punjab Act or under the Central Provinces Act of co-operative societies from the scope of these Acts; in fact, Central Provinces Act expressly includes such societies within the definition of a creditor. The rate of interest to be allowed may be prescribed as originally proposed in clause 2(8) (iii) of the Bill when introduced in the Council.

6. Clause 34(1)—Appellate Officer.—The qualifications of this officer should be laid down in the Act itself. It is very necessary that he should be an experienced civil judicial officer of several years' standing, and not below the rank of a Subordinate Judge. Retired judicial officers with this qualification should be eligible. Reference is invited to the remarks made in paragraph 2 above.

7. Clause 37.—There is no reason why legal practitioners should not be allowed to appear at any rate before Boards having power under clause 7 of the Bill, and before the Officer appointed under the proviso to clause 4. Intricate questions affecting the rights of various parties will have to be considered by them and lawyers will be of great assistance.

Minute of dissent by Babu Khetter Mohan Ray, M.L.C.

I still adhere to my view that the rent should not be included within the purview of this Bill. Rent is payable by instalments and generally rents are not sued for till the arrears are about to be barred, i.e., on the eve of expiry of the 4th year, thus the tenants have sufficient opportunities to pay by instalment. If further instalments are allowed for payment of arrears of rents and rent decrees, it will be very difficult for the landlords to pay revenue and rents to the superior landlords.

2. Joint-stock Banks should not be included in the Bill. These Banks are public Banks registered under the Company's Act. Several crores of rupees have been invested in these Banks by the public by way of share capital and deposits,

If these Banks are included, it will hit hard the general credit and trade and commerce of the country. Most of these Banks are financing trade and industry as well as agriculture.

3. In the Bill itself no provision has been made as to personnel of the Board. These Boards will be called upon to decide important questions of facts and sometimes of law. Village people such as we generally find in the Union Boards should not be appointed members of the Boards. From our experience of the Union Boards, we are of opinion that the constitution of the Boards should avoid this class of persons who are very often amenable to the influence of village factions and other undesirable influences. These Boards should be presided over by persons having judicial experience, who should be paid by fees, if non-official. The Board should sit at the headquarters of a subdivision. Lawyers should be allowed to appear. I do not see any reason for excluding lawyers from the Board. Appearance of lawyers will check many irregularities, illegalities and even corrupt practices.

4. There are stringent provisions in various forms to compel the creditors to appear before the Board on the application of the debtor and after his appearance, if he refused to accept terms offered by the debtor which in the opinion of the Board are fair, harsh and inequitable provisions are made in the Bill for punishing the creditor for his refusal. But there is no provision to compel the debtor to appear before the Board on the application of the creditor and have the debt settled. This is one-sided arrangement. I am of opinion that similar provisions should be made to compel the debtor to appear before the Board. The question of losing revenue on account of court-fees should not enter into consideration in providing compulsory measures for appearance of the debtor on the application of the creditor. For, the effect of the passing of the present Bill will have the effect of decreasing revenue on court-fees.

To my mind, legislation should proceed on the voluntary basis as in the Central Provinces. In order to make the debt conciliation successful without injuring rural credit, compulsory provisions should be omitted.

The Appellate Officer should in all cases be the District Judges or his Subordinate Officers to whom he may delegate his powers. Executive officers should not be appointed Appellate Officer.

Clause 20.—Provision for granting certificate should be omitted. At least in cases decided under clause 19 (1) (a) clause 20 should not be made applicable.

When the debt can be settled at any amount, it is not necessary to retain provisions for insolvency. These provisions do not exist in similar Acts, passed in other provinces. I am of opinion, clauses 21 and 22 should be deleted. Other objections will be preferred by way of amendments to the Bill.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Saileswar Singh Roy, M.L.C.

I beg to submit the following note of dissent on the report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Relief of Indebtedness Bill, 1935:—

1. Clause 3(2).—In the case of Boards exercising powers under clause 7, the Chairman should be an officer of judicial experience of not less than 10 years, and not below the rank of a senior Munsif. The Chairman's qualifications should be provided in the Act itself, and not left to rules.

2. Clause 13(3).—This clause should be deleted. Under clause 9, either the debtor, or the creditor may apply under this Act to the Board. If the debtor applies and the creditor fails to comply with the notice to supply a statement of debt, then the amount stated in the debtor's application is to be deemed correct, and no debt excluded from the creditor's statement is to be payable. But in the case of the creditor's application, it is to be dismissed if the debtor defaults. This is against all principles of equity. In such a case, the amount stated in the creditor's application should be taken to be correct, on the lines of clause 13(2).

Either the creditor should not be allowed to apply at all, or if he is so allowed, the same rule should prevail as in the case of the debtor's application.

3. The provisions of clause 14(3) and clause 31(b) seem to be rather contradictory. Clause 31 should be re-drafted in the light of clause 14(3) to remove any further controversy on the point.

4. Clause 20 should be entirely omitted or radically altered. This clause negatives the principle underlying clause 19, namely, where a large proportion of the creditors agree (40 per cent. or 60 per cent., as the case may be), and the offer to the Board seems fair, then the composition may be put through, and gentle compulsion may be applied to the other creditors. It is understood that it is not the intention of Government to enforce absolute compulsion but clause 20 is in effect intended to compel the creditors to accept whatever terms are considered fair by the Board, for otherwise their claims cannot be enforced for many years (the period of postponement may extent up to 20 years). If the policy of Government is to enforce out and out compulsion, clause 19 is meaningless. In any event, the provision at the end of clause 20 that even if there be no award, the creditor is to be postponed for a period up to ten years is inequitable and is opposed to all principles of law. This is the most objectionable clause in the whole Bill.

5. Clause 34(1)—The Appellate Officer.—His qualifications should be prescribed in the Bill. It is very necessary that he should be one with considerable judicial experience and not below the rank of a Subordinate Judge either in service or retired.

6. Clause 37.—There is no reason why legal practitioners should not be allowed to appear at any rate before the Appellate Officer. Intricate questions affecting the rights of parties have to be settled by such tribunals, and lawyers will be of considerable help to them. The bar should therefore be removed.

Constituted Attorneys of parties irrespective of the fact whether they are lawyers or not, should be allowed to appear before the Board having powers under clause 7 of the Bill and also before the Appellate Officer.

Minute of dissent by Maulvi Abdul Hamid Shah, M.L.C.

I signed my name with the note of dissent on the clauses 27 and 37, which I shall put forward as amendments in the discussion in the Council.

Minute of dissent by Khan Bahadur Maulvi Alimuzzaman Chaudhuri, M.L.C.

Owing to my illness I could not attend the Select Committee meeting. I reserve my right to place amendments at the time of reconsideration of the Report.

Minute of dissent by Maulvi Syed Majid Baksh, M.L.C.

I sign the Report of the Select Committee of the Bengal Relief of Indebtedness Bill, 1935, subject to the following note of dissent.

The provision to make the sureties jointly liable to the fullest amount of debt although the share of debt of a debtor is reduced is unjust because it may be in many cases the sureties out of a disinterested motive and merely to help a debtor lent his name to the joint debt. In such a case it would be too harsh to penalise a surety. Hence to clause 9A (1) a further sub-clause (c) should be added for the protection of such sureties as mentioned above. Moreover, if the share of debt of an agriculturist is reduced, the others should not be saddled with more than their share. Clause 2 (8) (iv) (b) is ambiguous. It is not clear what sort of arrears of rent is meant. It should be cleared up by an amendment.

Clause 17 (2) (b) is unnecessarily harsh on the debtor because there may be such cases where the debtor not knowing that the Bengal Agricultural Debtors Act is coming to existence may have made a transfer of the property for self-protection. Such cases should be provided for.

In clause 19A there should be provision that the decision of the Board shall be final.

The exclusion of three bighas of land for the maintenance of an insolvent debtor should be in addition to his homestead.

Minute of dissent by Raja Bahadur Bhupendra Narayan Sinha, of Nashipur, M.L.C.

So far as the object of the Bill is concerned it is laudable. We appreciate the motive which has inspired the Government to introduce the Bill and to take up this vital question of the province. We cannot but be thankful to the authorities for recognising the necessity of tackling this problem of Rural Indebtedness.

But the methods that have been adopted are likely to be of doubtful utility. The Hon'ble Member has cited the case of Bhawnagore State. Amongst other measures adopted to relieve the debt-oppressed khedu (agriculturist), the Bhawnagore Durbar sanctioned a debt redemption scheme depending for its application on the voluntary co-operation of the sowcars (money-lenders) and the indebted khedu. But the Durbar was not satisfied by merely passing a new law, but as a measure of practical relief, the Durbar had sanctioned some money to pay off the debts. The nominal outstanding arrears shown as owing by khedus in sowcars' books amounted to Rs. 86,38,000, and the same have been compounded and compromised under the scheme by the Durbar, paying on behalf of the indebted khedus Rs. 20,59,000. This is the practical way of solving this great problem of problems. If the Government want to give the full benefit of the Bill to the indebted agriculturists they must provide a loan from the Government of India at the usual interest of 3 per cent. and then they can lend the money to the agriculturists by way of settling their debts, at a higher rate of interest. If the loan from the Government of India cannot be secured, the next course would be to organise rural banks in each subdivision which can advance money on the security of the landed property. But mere passing of the Bill will not achieve the object fully and successfully.

It is further admitted that the Chandpur Boards had success. But there is much difference between the method adopted at Chandpur, and the one provided in the Bill. Three types of Boards are proposed to be set up under this Bill. But only the first type resembles the Boards as set up at Chandpur subdivision whose duty had been to amicably settle debts on the lines of the Central Provinces and the Punjab Boards. The power of compulsion given to the other Boards is admittedly wider than what was recommended by the Board of Enquiry. Secondly, the Chandpur Board has selected a few cases, whereas the Bill would apply to all without exception. So these factors should be considered seriously before we launch the Bill.

I would like to make a few observations with regard to some of the clauses.

Rent should not be included within the purview of the Bill. Ever since the permanent settlement and the passing of the Bengal Tenancy Act of 1885, rent has been enjoying a special form of sanctity, and the civil courts are not empowered to allow instalments in decree for arrears of rent. The inclusion of arrears of rent can only be considered as a measure of temporary emergency and not as a permanent one. In the Central Provinces and the Punjab Acts arrears of land revenue are excluded. If the analogy of the Central Provinces and the Punjab Acts are strictly followed in all their implications, the claim for arrears of rent to be excluded from the category of debt becomes irresistible.

In the award some provision should be made for the payment of current rent. From the standpoint of debtor this should be done. If no provision be made, naturally the debtor will make default and his holding is liable to be sold and the object of the Bill will be frustrated.

A certificate as to the satisfaction of the arrears of rent due by a debtor should be a condition precedent to the granting of an award at the instance of the debtor or creditor as recommended by the Enquiry Committee.

Under clause 13, if any creditor fails to comply with a notice under sub-clause (1), the Board will declare that "the amount of any debt due to him from a creditor on the date of such order shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the amount stated in the statement of debt submitted by the debtor, and that no debt of which the creditor has failed to submit a statement, other than a debt which the debtor has included in his statement of debt, shall be payable;"

"and such order shall not be questioned in any civil court or in any manner."

"If any debtor fails to comply with a notice under sub-section (1), the Board shall dismiss the application."

There should not be an invidious distinction between a debtor and a creditor.

Clause 2(8)(III) brings rent accruing after the filing of the application till the date of determination within the definition of debt. This will directly interfere with the collection of rent, as the time between the application and the date of determination will necessarily be a long one and the debtor will naturally withhold payment of such rent on the ground that it will form part of the award. So some provision should be made to realise rent which has not been mentioned in the application during the pendency of the application.

In clause 2(8)(III) after the word "when" the following words be added, namely, "An application is made under section 9 or 9A" and the words "A Board determines the amount of debts under section 18" be deleted.

In clause 9(6) in the last line the words "Sub-section (2) of" be deleted.

In clause 13(3) substitute the word "Shall" for the word "May."

In clause 18, the following proviso be added after sub-clause (4):—

"Provided that if a debtor does not pursue the application after such determination, the Board shall, upon the application by a creditor, make an award for the entire amount so determined or else such determination of debts will cease to subsist and the parties will be relegated to the original position."

At the end of clause 20 the word "Two years" be substituted for "Ten years."

At the end of clause 22 the following explanation be added:—

"The words 'unsecured debt' in this clause have the same meaning as in the explanation under clause 19."

Clause 28.—At the beginning of the clause add the following words:—

"Except as provided for in section 23A."

At the end of the clause 31(b) add the following:—

"Unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the civil court that there were sufficient reasons for non-production of the documents before the Board."

Minute of dissent by Mr. Ananda Mohan Poddar, M.L.C.

I send my note of dissent on some of the provisions of the Bill as settled by the Select Committee. I reserve the right to deal with the other provisions at proper time.

Public opinion as we find in the circulated papers is strongly against the various provisions of the Bill. Before introducing a measure comprising so many important changes in the existing civil law, it would have been proper if the opinion of the Hon'ble High Court, the highest Judiciary in the land, as well as of the District Judicial Officers, had been ascertained. This should be done even at this stage and before the Bill is put on the Legislative anvil.

The Government would have done better if it had examined the recommendations of the Central Banking Enquiry Committee regarding debt conciliation and ascertained how far the Government are in a position to act in accordance with these recommendations. I would quote a few observations made by the said Committee in this connection:—"The general experience recorded in all these provinces has been that any scheme of debt conciliation could not succeed until adequate organisation for carrying out debt clearance has been built up, and unless some agency like the Government or the co-operative credit societies or land mortgage banks where they exist is forthcoming to make cash advance to the debtors, in order to enable them to pay the compound debt, at least in part, to the creditor. The Central Provinces Committee are satisfied that many creditors would readily agree to accept in full satisfaction of their dues considerably less sums if paid down in cash. They also express the hope that the District Development Boards and those assisting in the campaign of rural reconstruction would be able to help in evolving a scheme of debt redemption. The Punjab Committee report that their evidence leads them to believe that in many cases the money-lender is finding recovery increasingly difficult and is more disposed than ever before to compound his claims. It is thought, they say, that he would agree to substantial reductions if he were given an assurance that the amount finally settled would be repaid by a fixed date without further effort on his part; and it is suggested that the best way of giving him this assurance would be to allow him to transfer his debt, or such part of it as could not be paid at once, to the co-operative society as a deposit which would be repayable pari passu with the instalment fixed for the debtor, subject to a maximum period of, say, ten years." (Paragraph 90 of the Report.) It is the duty of the Government to give effect as far as possible to the recommendations of the Committee set up by the Government for the purpose. So far as we have been able to ascertain from the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Bill, the Government of Bengal are not prepared to shoulder any financial responsibility for the successful working of the proposed Act. This makes me very diffident as to the success of debt conciliation measures in Bengal.

The Government of Bengal in asking the creditors to make sacrifice in order to give relief to the debtors are themselves keeping aloof and refuse to find out money for the purpose. This is simply to rob Peter to pay Paul. I am sorry to have to observe that this attitude of the Government will kill the rural credit of Bengal.

Clause 1, sub-clause (3).—The Bill being an emergency measure, the duration of its application should be restricted accordingly. It should be provided that the Act shall remain in force in a notified area for a limited period only.

Clause 2, sub-clause (8).—I object to the inclusion of a decree or order of a Civil Court to the definition of debt except for the purpose of Clause 19 (I) (a), i.e., for amicable settlement.

Clause 2, sub-clause (8) (ii).—Debt incurred by an agriculturist for the purpose of trade should not be included in the definition of debt. I want to retain the original sub-clause (8) (i).

Clause 3.—The Boards should be established in district towns and at the sub-divisions and not in the interior. In these days of easy communication there would be little or no difficulty for the parties to attend such Boards in towns. This will prevent the parties from falling into the clutches of the village touts. If the Boards are situate in the towns away from the rural areas they will be free from any local influence that may be exercised upon them for either party, whereas on the other hand, if they require, they may avail of legal help or of the help from the intelligentsia of the town.

Clause 3, sub-clause (2).—It is nowhere suggested in the Bill that the Chairman or the members of the Board will be men of judicial or legal experience. Many intricate questions of law arise in rent suits and mortgage suits as well as on suits on promissory notes. The Bill as a whole proposes to oust the civil courts of their jurisdiction in these days when people cry hoarse for the separation of executive and judicial functions. It is certainly undesirable to divest the civil courts of their jurisdiction and to place civil matters in the hands of laymen or executive or revenue officers who are generally devoid of legal training. The contemplated Boards that will be vested with arbitrary powers may not be immune from abuses that are rampant in union courts in rural areas. For these reasons, the Chairman at least should be a person with some judicial experience, and the qualifications of the Chairman should be laid down in the Act itself, and not left to be regulated by rules.

Clause 12.—The manner of serving the notice should be embodied in the Act itself and should not be left for rules. The notice must be by registered post under this clause as well as under clauses 13 and 23.

Clause 13, sub-clause (3).—Under clause 9 either the debtor or the creditor may apply to the Board; in the case of the creditor's application if the debtor defaults, the application is to be dismissed; but in the case of the debtor's application, if the creditor defaults, the latter will be made to suffer inasmuch as under clause 13(2) the amount stated in the debtor's application is to be taken as correct.

This is against all principles of equity or justice. If you allow the creditor to apply, then in all fairness, the same rule should be allowed to prevail and if the debtor defaults, the amount stated in the creditor's application should be taken as correct on the analogy of clause 13(2).

I strongly object to this sort of discrimination.

Clause 19.—This clause provides for the settlement of debts either amicably or otherwise. So far as the settlement is amicable or agreed there is nothing to object to. But this clause contemplates compulsion inasmuch as the non-agreeing creditors can be made bound by the terms offered by the debtor under certain conditions. The compulsion introduced under sub-clauses (b) and (c) of this clause should be made milder by providing the percentage referred to in clause (b) to be at least fifty per cent. and in clause (c) seventy-five per cent. instead of forty per cent. and sixty per cent. respectively.

Clause 20.—The grant of certificate under this clause is intended to penalise the recalcitrant creditor. It negatives the principle of the milder form of compulsion provided under clause 19(1) (b) and (c) inasmuch as it gives the Board most arbitrary powers by which an offer may be imposed upon the creditor at its discretion without any reference to the views of the creditor and if he does not accept that offer his claim is postponed up to ten years. It means that under the threat of the infliction of clause 20 the creditor will be made to agree to the terms offered by the debtor or by the Board, as the case may be. This is out and out compulsion without any restriction and is a most objectionable clause in the whole Bill and with this retained, the colour of conciliation is gone.

It should be deleted.

Clause 21.—Not only the dwelling house of the insolvent debtor will be exempted from sale but immovable property to the extent of not more than one-third or less than one acre of land shall be exempted for his maintenance.

Provision of this nature is not justifiable. There is no such provision under the ordinary law of insolvency. Its inclusion will only defeat the object of insolvency procedure and with this safeguard the debtor will readily welcome insolvency.

Even if this is to be retained, it should not be more than one-third which in no case would exceed one acre of land.

Clause 27.—Joint stock banks and co-operative credit societies should be placed exactly on the same footing, as both lend out money received from the depositors.

Clause 34 (1).—The qualification of Appellate Officer should be laid down in the Act itself. It is necessary that he should be an experienced judicial officer not below the rank of a Subordinate Judge.

Clause 37.—The legal practitioners will be debarred from appearing before the Board and the Appellate Officers. Intricate questions affecting the rights of various parties will have to be considered by the Board and the Appellate Officers and the lawyers will be of great assistance to them. Without the help of the lawyers, the parties will not be properly represented and the door will be wide open to village touts.

Clause 46.—The Bill leaves many things with the Local Government under the rule-making clause. The functions of the Legislature should not be usurped in this way. This is undoubtedly very drastic as placing the rights of the creditors and debtors at the discretion of a few executive officers of the Local Government.

Minute of dissent by Haji Badi Ahmed Chowdhury, M.L.C.

Clause 1 (2).—It should extend to the whole of Bengal; if Calcutta is to be excluded, I suggest that other municipalities should also be excluded.

Clause 3 (1).—The Local Government may by notification establish at least one or more Debt Settlement Boards in each of the thanas.

(2) Of the four members to be appointed two must be non-official—one district board or local board member who is elected by the agriculturists, creditors, debtors and others.

Clause 21(1) (b).—Before passing orders for sale of two-thirds of immovable properties the consent of the debtor should be obtained; if no consent be given, Board should order for repayment of his debts by sale of half of the produce of his properties.

Minute of dissent by Maulvi Abul Quasem, M.L.C.

I do not agree with all the provisions contained in clause 9A (2), particularly the proviso. An agricultural debtor is being granted relief all right but the person, a non-agriculturist, who by standing surety for him helped him to get a loan and tide over his difficulty, is being left to shift for himself. The creditor will proceed against him and realize all his dues from him but he (the surety) will never be able to reimburse himself for what he will have to pay on account of the principal debtor. The curious and unfortunate result will be that the man who befriended the agricultural debtor when he was in dire need of money will be penalised. This is, to say the least, most unfair. The Bill is designed to help the agricultural debtor, not to punish his friends in need. I am strongly of opinion that the relief which is being granted to the debtor should be extended to his surety also.

The other points on which I differ from the recommendations of the Select Committee I will bring up in the Council in the shape of amendments.

(3) In determining the original principal of a debt for the purposes of proviso (ii) to clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 19, the Board shall determine the amount of the original loan, after excluding any amount of interest on such loan which may at any time have been included as principal; and the difference between the original principal and the amount of the debt shall be deemed to be the arrears of interest due thereon.

[Provided that where there is no independent proof of the amount of the original principal of the debt and the debtor and creditor are unable to agree as to such amount, the amount shown as the principal in the bond, if any, relating to the debt shall be determined to be the original principal, unless the recital in the bond indicates that the principal mentioned in the bond includes any arrears of interest.]

No. 997L.—15th November, 1935.—His Excellency the Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 18 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules, 1920, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information.

THE BENGAL WAKF (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1935.

A

BILL

to amend the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

Ben. Act
XIII of 1934.

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act ;

5 & 6 Geo.
V., c. 61 ;
6 & 7 Geo.
V., c. 37 ;
9 & 10 Geo
V., c. 101

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Wakf (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Insertion of new section 43A in Bengal Act XIII of 1934.

Commissioner to decide if a property is wakf property or a wakf is wakf-al-aulad.

2. After section 43 of the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

“43A. Any question whether a particular property is wakf property or not or whether a wakf is wakf-al-aulad or not shall be decided by the Commissioner whose decision, unless revoked or modified by a competent Court, shall be final.”

Amendment of section 93.

3. In section 93 of the said Act, for the words “ twelve months ” the words “ two years ” shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Before the Bengal Wakf Act, 1934 (Ben. Act XIII of 1934) is brought into force in whole, certain amendments appear to be necessary.

The Act does not state who shall decide, in the event of dispute or doubt, whether a particular property is a wakf or not, or whether a wakf is wakf-al-al-aulad or not. It is desirable that this defect should be remedied.

Section 93 of the Act empowers the Local Government to remove unforeseen difficulties within twelve months from the date on which this Act in whole or in part first came into force. The Act came into force in part in December, 1934, only for the purposes of the survey contemplated in section 2. The twelve months will expire in December, 1935. As unforeseen difficulties may arise when the whole Act is enforced, it is expedient to extend the period from twelve months to two years.

No. 1002I.—16th November, 1935.—His Excellency the Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 18 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules, 1920, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information.

THE BENGAL LAND REGISTRATION (AMENDMENT)
BILL, 1935.

A

BILL

further to amend the Land Registration Act, 1876.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Land Registration Act, 1876, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

Ben. Act
VII of 1876.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Land Registration (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 28 of
Bengal Act
VII of 1876.

2. For the proviso to section 28 of the Land Registration Act, 1876 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following proviso shall be substituted, namely :—

“ Provided that, except when changes are made in the general register of revenue-paying lands or in the mauzawar register in order to bring the entries in these registers into accordance with a record-of-rights finally published under the provisions of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, notice shall be given to the recorded proprietors and managers of any estate or revenue-free property before any change is made in any way affecting such estate or property, and to every person whose name the Collector is about to register as proprietor or manager of any estate or revenue-free property, before such registration is effected ; and any objections which may be made to the proposed change or registration shall be duly considered by the Collector before he orders such change or registration to be made.”

Amendment of section 78.

3. The second paragraph of section 78 of the said Act shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. When records-of-rights were prepared for whole districts, many changes were made in the unit of survey of mauza. These units which generally dated from the Revenue Survey in some cases consisted of a number of disconnected blocks or chaks, and in others were too small or too large for administrative convenience: many also had names which were not even known to the majority of the residents. The rules for the determination of the new units are given in Appendix Rp 217 of the Survey and Settlement Manual, 1917, and rule 225 of that Manual prescribes that proceedings will be drawn up in each case of a proposed change. No changes were therefore made without issuing notices to the landlords and tenants and disposing of objections and the publication of a notification in the Calcutta Gazette under section 3(19)(b) of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885. After the records-of-rights had been finally published, revised jurisdiction lists were drawn up to act as an index to the village maps and new registers in the forms proscribed in the Land Registration Manual for the Collector's Registers A and C were prepared in the Settlement Offices. It has been found convenient to use these registers in the collectorates instead of the out-of-date registers prepared years ago but this, as the law now stands, cannot be done without issuing notices to every co-sharer in a revenue-paying or revenue-free estate. Hence it is proposed to amend section 28 of the Land Registration Act, 1876, so as to avoid the expense of issuing notices to every landlord about changes in the register which have no effect on his interest in the estate as recorded in Register D.

2. The second paragraph of section 78 of the Land Registration Act, 1876, exempts ijmali tenants from paying rent to the different co-sharer landlords except in proportion to the shares of those landlords as recorded in Register D.

This paragraph is universally ignored in practice, because there are a large number of cases where co-sharer landlords by mutual arrangement or for some other reason collect rents disproportionate to their real shares. There is no advantage in leaving this unpracticable provision in the Act and it is accordingly proposed to delete it.

DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4240L.C.—18th November, 1935.—The following minute of dissent on the Bengal Relief of Indebtedness Bill, 1935, is hereby published for general information:—

Minute of dissent by Babu Hem Chandra Roy Choudhuri, M.L.C., on the Bengal Relief of Indebtedness Bill, 1935.

Sub-clause (1) (a) of clause 9A.—As the ancestral assets only, not the personal properties of the heirs are liable for the debt, there is no cogent reason for extending relief under the provisions of the Bill to the heirs of the ancestors, who were not debtors as defined in the Bill, simply because one of them happens to be an agriculturist. To grant any relief to somebody who is not a debtor within the meaning of this Bill is against the principle of the Bill. I therefore cannot subscribe to this provision of the Bill.

Clause 26 (1) (a).—The word “or” should be substituted by “and” for payment of the amounts is not alternative. One will follow the other in order of priority.

Proviso of clause 26 (2) (b).—The meaning of the proviso is not clear. I am not in favour of giving priority to any instalment of an unsecured creditor when sale proceeds are insufficient to meet the whole dues of all of them. They should rank equally among themselves for purposes of payment.

Clause 29.—The Board is authorised under the clause to stay a suit or other proceeding pending before a Civil or Revenue Court and it has also been provided that the suit or proceeding shall abate so far as its claim is covered by the decision of the Board. But there is no clause in the Bill entitling the deserving creditor to the costs of the suit or proceeding and prescribing the procedure to be followed for its realisation. Before a decree is passed for the costs, it will not be a debt, and in that case it will be outside the jurisdiction of the Board: even if it be a debt, the amount, incurred after the date of the application under clause 9, will not be taken cognisance of by the Board. The Civil or Revenue Court cannot give a decree for costs as the suit or proceeding will abate. I would, therefore, suggest to empower the Board to take the amount of cost into consideration in giving the award.

Clause 34.—I do not want to have two sets of appellate officers with two sets of qualifications. All appellate officers must have qualification of civil judicial experience.

Sub-clause (6) refers to revision, but there is no provision in the Bill for applying for revision.

Clause 36.—Provision for review of the decision or order of the appellate officer should also be made.

Clause 37.—One should not be debarred from appearing before a Board simply because he happens to be a legal practitioner. It may so happen that a brother may be in charge of the money-lending business of his widow-sister or of some brother serving at a distant place or that a father or a cousin brother may be guardian of his minor son or brother as the case may be for the management of the properties of the minor and if they are not allowed to appear before the Board simply because they are legal practitioners, interest of the widow or the minor may suffer. It should, therefore, be provided that for good and sufficient reason legal practitioners may be permitted by the Board to represent a party before it.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of the present Bill for amendment of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, is mainly to remove certain anomalies to which attention of Government has been drawn from time to time. The Bill also incorporates some of the amendments proposed by certain non-official members of the Legislative Council in the Bills introduced by them in the Council during the last two years. Besides introducing a few important changes in regard to franchise qualifications and the term of the body of the appointed commissioners of newly created municipalities, and providing for a right of appeal with respect to the preparation of the electoral roll, provision has been made for allowing certain concession in regard to the payment of the conservancy rate to mills and factories, etc., contributing towards the cost of a sewerage scheme. Practical experience having shown that the provisions of section 465 are unworkable without a provision for the licensing of dogs, it is proposed to permit municipalities to levy a tax on dogs at their discretion, to prescribe the compulsory wearing of tokens by licensed dogs and to destroy, subject to appropriate safeguards, dogs not wearing tokens. The Bill also incorporates provisions on the lines of sections 100A, 100B and 100D of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act, 1885, for the proper control of fairs and melas within municipalities.

Opportunity has also been taken to remove certain practical difficulties experienced in the working of the Act.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—The amendment in section 3(54) is designed to make the intention clearer.

Clause 3(i).—The alteration in proviso (2) of section 16 is necessitated by the fact that the term of one year happens to be too short for the preparation of electoral rolls and for other preliminaries in connection with a general election for the re-constitution of a municipality.

Clause 3(ii).—The change in proviso (3) to section 16 is intended to remove a practical difficulty by making it clear that a commissioner may be appointed if he possesses the qualifications mentioned in section 23(2) even if his name does not appear on the electoral roll.

Clause 4.—The alterations in sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 18 are to make it clear that when the Local Government decides to increase the number of appointed commissioners to secure proper representation of industry and of labour, the appointments to the extra seats only should be made from persons directly concerned in or connected with such industry or industries and the labour employed therein.

The other change is designed to bring together the second part of clause (i) and clause (ii) as being more suitable.

Clause 5.—The amendments in section 23 are intended (i) to extend the franchise to persons paying cart-registration fees and (ii) to provide that in the case of the Municipality of Howrah payment of any sum as consolidated rate under the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, as extended to that municipality, will qualify a person to be a voter within that municipality.

Clause 6.—The change in section 25 (3) is designed to prevent the forfeiture of deposit made by a successful candidate who has failed to poll over ten per cent. of votes.

Clause 7.—The necessity of the proposed new section 25A is obvious. Through inadvertence an ineligible person may be elected a commissioner.

Clause 8.—The amendment in section 28 is to prevent attempts to procure an improper entry in the electoral roll.

Clauses 9 and 10.—The amendment in sections 30 and 36 are with a view to make the intention clearer.

Clauses 11, 12 and 13.—The amendments in sections 37 to 39 are intended to remove certain obscurities pointed out by the District Judge of the 24-Parganas.

Clause 14.—New section 39A is to make it clear that the Judge is authorized to confirm an election in certain cases.

New section 39B reproduces existing sub-section (4) of section 37 with a consequential amendment required by the enactment of proposed new section 39A.

Clause 15.—The amendment in section 57 will remove a practical difficulty.

Clause 16.—This amendment is intended to make sub-section (3) consistent with sub-section (1) of section 82.

Clause 17.—The omission will enable municipal fund to be applied to the training of medical practitioners in general.

Clauses 18 to 22.—These amendments reproduce existing sections 112, 113 and 114 with certain rearrangements to make the intention clearer.

In section 112 "three months" have been altered to "two months" so that nine months' actual may be available at the time of framing the budget.

Clause 23.—The addition proposed to clause (a) of section 122 which is based on clause (ii) of section 69B of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, will remove a want now felt.

Clause 25.—This amendment is to prevent a hardship now felt by certain mills who have contributed largely towards the cost of sewerage schemes.

The amendment in proposed clause (iv) of the proviso to section 126 (3) is designed to prevent double concession being allowed in any case.

Clause 27.—The amendment in section 136 is to avoid the necessity of appointing an assessor for intermediate assessments which may be made every year. It is only necessary to appoint an assessor for preparing new valuation lists once in every five years under section 137 (1).

Clause 29.—New section 144A is to provide that provisions of section 144 will apply to cases of succession by inheritance.

Clause 30.—The amendment in section 145(2) is to remove the difficulty of finding an impartial assessor who is at the same time familiar with local conditions.

Clause 31.—Section 148(3) has been omitted as applications for review might be submitted during intermediate assessments when there will be no assessors.

Clause 33.—New section 198A is to include a provision authorizing the commissioners to frame rules for management of ferries.

Clause 34.—This amendment is to correct a clerical error.

Clause 35.—The amendment in section 250 is to make the intention clearer.

Clause 36.—The amendment in section 370(I) (xii) is to restrict the application of this provision to factories under the Indian Factories Act, 1911.

Clause 37.—New Chapter XVIIA contains provisions regarding control of fairs or melas on the lines of sections 100A, 100B and 100D of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885.

Clause 38.—This amendment is to remove a defect by taking power to frame rules for the maintenance and management of schools.

Clause 39.—This amendment will enable Government to extend the Calcutta Survey Act, 1887, to a municipality.

Clause 41.—New section 464A and the amendment in section 465 are designed to exercise more effective control over mad and stray dogs. The provisions of existing section 465 have been found to be unworkable in practice.

Clause 42.—The proposed amendment in section 500 provides suitable penalties for breaches of provisions of sections 144A, 182, 182B, 414A, 414B and 464A.

Clause 43.—The amendment in section 507 is to remove a practical difficulty experienced by several municipal authorities in translating rules, orders, etc., into Bengali.

Clause 44.—New section 529A provides an appeal to the District Magistrate from the decisions of the committee appointed under section 21 (I). Complaints regarding unfair preparation of electoral roll have been bitter and common.

Clause 45.—This amendment is designed to make the intention clearer.

THE CALCUTTA MUNICIPAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1935.

A

BILL

further to amend the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

Ben. Act
III of 1923.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

(a) after clause (a) of sub-section (1) the following clause shall be inserted, namely :—

“(aa) being or having been a person who keeps for use a motor vehicle for carrying passengers which is liable to the tax under the Bengal Motor Vehicles Tax Act, 1932, has paid to the Local Government a sum not less than twelve rupees in respect of such tax :

Ben.
Act I of 1932.

Provided that such payment has been made during and in respect of the year (or portion of the year) last preceding the year in which the election is held ; or ” and

(b) in sub-section (2) after the word, brackets and letter “ clauses (a) ” the brackets and letters “ (aa) ” shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Before the enactment of the Bengal Motor Vehicles Tax Act, 1932, a tax had to be paid to the Corporation on all carriages (which included motor vehicles ordinarily used for the conveyance of human beings) specified in Schedule VIII to the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923; and under section 20(1)(a) of the Act every owner or person in charge of any carriage liable to the tax under Chapter XI, who had paid directly to the Corporation a sum not less than twelve rupees as such tax during and in respect of the year (or any portion of the year) last preceding the year in which the election is held, was qualified as an elector of a general constituency. This franchise has been taken away by the Bengal Motor Vehicles Tax Act, 1932, under which motor vehicles are no longer liable to the tax under the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923. It is proposed to amend section 20 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, so as to restore this franchise, with effect from the general election to be held in the year 1936.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council, Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council, and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4524L.C.—9th December, 1935.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Bill, 1935, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by them annexed, is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Bill, 1935.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Bill, 1935, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 26th November, 1935, have the honour to submit this our report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us annexed. All matter recommended to be omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and all new matter recommended to be inserted has been underlined.

2. The Bill was published in English in an Extraordinary issue of the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd August, 1935.

3. We do not consider that the Bill has been so altered by our recommendations as to require republication.

4. The Committee met for the first time on the 28th November, 1935; and concluded its sittings on the 30th idem.

5. The changes made in the Bill are as follows :—

Clauses 2 and 18.—The alterations made in proposed section 9A, in clause 2, and in clause 18 are consequential upon the insertion of proposed clause 3 in section 23.

Clause 3(1) (a).—We have re-drafted the proposed proviso to section 10A, inserted by clause 3(1) (a) of the Bill so that notice of pending suits or proceedings in respect of claims shall be given within six months and notice of decision of civil courts in respect of such claims shall be given within three months after the final disposal of such suit or proceedings. We consider this change desirable as it will all the more help the Court of Wards to frame schemes with greater precision.

Clause 3(b) (ii).—The changes made in this clause are consequential upon the changes made in clause 3(1) (a).

Clause 5.—The alteration made in proposed section 10C is intended to make the intention clearer, viz., that the benefit under this section will be enjoyed only so long as the property is in charge of the Court of Wards. We have also substituted the words "four years" and "seven years" for the words "five years" and "ten years" respectively, as we consider the former periods to be more reasonable.

Proposed section 10CC supplies an omission by bringing the law relating to the limitation of suits against a ward into line with the proposed new law relating to limitation in regard to the execution of a decree or order. This will save persons from unnecessarily instituting suits against wards as they will not be able to execute the decrees so obtained during the period mentioned in proposed section 10C.

Clause 8.—The necessity for the proviso inserted by us in proposed section 11 is due to the fact that the incidence of proprietorship in a Mitākshra family is entirely different from that of other proprietors.

Clause 11.—We think it desirable that the educational expenses of the wards themselves should be included in class I of section 48. The changes made in clause 11 are with a view to give effect to this.

Clause 12.—We also consider it desirable that payment of rent and cess should have priority over "other Government dues" referred to in item (5) of proposed clause 2 of section 23 in the Bill as introduced. We have, therefore, transposed item No. (6) which deals with the former as item No. (5) in the said proposed clause.

Proposed clause 3 of section 23.—In view of the restrictions imposed on creditors by section 10C, as proposed to be amended by the Bill, we think it only fair that the Court of Wards, instead of releasing an insolvent estate to a proprietor, should be given discretionary powers to vest such estates with trustees, who will, in the administration of estates so vested, be under the control of civil courts. The trustees will receive their directions as to the disposal of the estates from such civil court of the district as may be prescribed by rules.

Clause 14.—In class II of proposed section 48 we have provided that debts secured by mortgage on immovable property shall have priority over debts which have been reduced under sub-section (2) of section 10D. We consider this reasonable.

In class III the words omitted in the last portion are consequential upon the changes made in clause 11.

The change proposed in class IV in item No. (2) is purely verbal.

Clause 16.—Under section 3(17) of the Bengal General Clauses Act, 1899 (Ben. Act I of 1899), "a thing is deemed to be done in good faith where it is done honestly, whether it is done negligently or not." We do not think it desirable that this definition of good faith should apply in the case of the Court of Wards Act, 1879.

For instance, we do not consider it right or proper that wilful negligence on the part of officers of the Court of Wards in the discharge of their duties under the Court of Wards Act, 1879, should be tolerated as the clause in the Bill as introduced seems to do.

The changes made in the clause are with a view to give effect to this opinion.

We recommend that the Bill, as reported on by us, be passed.

*Signed subject to his minute of dissent annexed.

NOTE.—The signatures of Mr. N. K. Basu and Mr. Abanda Mohan Poddar had not been received up to the time of publishing the Report.

Minute of dissent by Khan Bahadur Muhammad Abdul Momin, M.L.C.

I do not agree to the principle of giving protection to estates of proprietors which are taken over by the Court of Wards under clause (e) of section 6, viz., those proprietors who have by extravagance and incapacity mismanaged their estates and made them over to the Court of Wards. I do not mind estates taken over under section 6 (a) to (d) being protected in the manner provided in clause 5 of the Bill.

I strongly object to clause 3 of the Bill which has been introduced by the Select Committee and was not in the Bill as originally drafted. By this clause it is provided that the Court of Wards when it finds itself unable to save the estate it may instead of releasing the estate to the proprietor hand it over to the trustees selected from among the creditors. This is a most extraordinary provision and if allowed to be made into law will cause the ruin of many zemindari estates—particularly as the provision will apply not only to estates which will be taken over by the Board in future, but also to those which are now under its management.

Minute of dissent by Babu Jatindra Nath Basu, M.L.C.

The following is my note of dissent to the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Bill, 1935 :—

"(Clause 12 provides for the creation of a trust. There should be a provision enabling persons interested to apply to the Civil Court, for amongst other things—

- (a) having the trustees removed and for having new trustees appointed,
- (b) having a scheme framed, if necessary from time to time, for the administration of the trust,
- (c) for having the trust terminated on grounds that may be considered sufficient by the Civil Court."

Joint minute of dissent by Maulvi Abdus Samad, M.L.C., and Mr. R. Maiti, M.L.C.

We sign the Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Court of Wards (Amendment) Bill, 1935, subject to the following minute of dissent :—

We entirely agree with the general principles underlying the original Bill, but we oppose the insertion of the proposed new clause 3 (1) in section 23 of the Act. We reserve the right of moving amendments for its deletion in the open Council.

Minute of dissent by Maulvi Abul Quasem, M.L.C.

Clause 5.—I cannot agree that section 10C should be permanently replaced by the proposed sections 10C and 10CC. The present difficulties are admittedly due to the prevailing economic depression. With the passing of the depression there should be no reason for the continuance of these provisions. I am particularly opposed to the extension of the benefits of these sections to those proprietors who have been or may be declared disqualified under clause (e) of section 6. That clause should, in my opinion, be repealed.

Clause 12.—I cannot agree to the addition of the proposed clause 3 to section 23. It was not in the Bill, as introduced in the Council. It embodies a new provision and a new principle and should have been before the public and the Council before having been adopted by the Select Committee. In my opinion the procedure recommended will prove in practice to be difficult, dilatory, cumbrous and costly.

Minute of dissent by Raja Bahadur Bhupendra Narayan Sinha, of Nashipur, M.L.C.

- I sign the Report subject to the following note of dissent:—

On principle I strongly object to the insertion of new clause 12(ii) because the underlying object is entirely new and has been adopted in the Select Committee for the first time. It was not recognized in the Bill so presented and the Council had no occasion to express any opinion on it, nor was public opinion elicited on this point by circulation. In my humble opinion the views of the public and of important associations should be called for before it may be adopted by the Council. The Council should know definitely the views of the public on this important question enunciating a new principle vitally affecting the party. If this clause be passed, it will prove ruinous to the estates. Without proper safeguards, the step of placing the management in the hands of the creditors will be like throwing the debtor's estate to the tender mercies of the creditors who will naturally care more for their dues than for the preservation of the estate.

Generally speaking, the Court of Wards takes up estates in which there is possibility of redeeming them after administering for some time. Fifteen years are the average number of years in which an encumbered estate may hope to clear off debts and such estates are generally taken up by Court. But there may be estates in which more than that period, say twenty or thirty years or more, are required to restore the normal position of solvency. What would be the fate of such an estate? Are they to be declared as hopeless or will they be placed under the administration of creditors as proposed in this section? Generally, estates are to be administered for two or three years before any scheme can be made of the probable number of years in which the debts can be cleared, and it is for this that the extension of the moratorium is proposed in this Bill. If after administering the estate for two or three years, the Court finds that the estate is not redeemable in the course of reasonable time of fifteen years, but it will take more than fifteen years, they will then give up the administration and place it under the trusteeship of the creditors. In such cases, though the condition of the estate is not absolutely hopeless, but only requires some more time, the Court by their action deprive the debtor of the chances of redeeming it.

In the clause as drafted the expression "reasonable period" has not been defined. There is no bar to the relinquishment of an estate by the Court after two or three years' administration and the discretion of considering what "reasonable period" is, lies wholly in the Court of Wards and its proper exercise cannot also be questioned. Under the circumstances, some check on its exercise should be provided in the Act.

Vesting of the estate in a body of creditors is like vesting of a property in the Official Assignee. Very few estates are restored to the proprietors after administration by the Official Assignee as the establishment and other charges, such as, remuneration, etc., are so high that the estate is run through in meeting them. Thus there should be hard-and-fast rule with regard to the remuneration of trustees.

In any case, the creditors who will undertake the administration of the estate as trustees should be debarred from realizing their own dues in the first instance. The duty of trusteeship being statutorily cast on them, any non-administration or mal-administration should amount to breach of trust for which they should be liable. A clear provision to this effect should be embodied in the Bill.

In the existing Act the payment of all charges necessary for the maintenance, education and religious observances of the ward and his family has been made the first charge in Class I, and only the "payment of such religious, charitable and other allowances.....and allowances and donation befitting the position of the ward's family" has been relegated to the fifth position in Class II. There are indeed very cogent reasons for treating the maintenance, education and religious allowances of the ward as the first charge on the property. There are certain religious observances of an obligatory nature, either enjoined by the Will of the founder of the family or hallowed by tradition handed down through generations; the disturbance of such sort of religious observances will seriously wound the susceptibilities of the ward and of his family and also the public at large. So this provision of religious allowance should be placed in the same category with the allowance of wards.

“ Clause 2.—If at the time when any property ceases to be under the charge of the Court of Wards, any liabilities enumerated in this clause are outstanding in respect of any part of the property, the Collector may attach the whole or any part of such property whether consisting of estates, or shares or parts of estates, or tenures or holdings and collect the rents, cesses and other demands due and all arrears thereof, managing the property so attached either directly or through a manager or by farming as he may think fit :

Provided that such attachment shall not remain in force for a period exceeding five years.

The Collector shall from the proceeds of such property discharge the liabilities of the whole property in the following order of priority :—

- (1) cost of management,
- (2) arrears of Government revenue and interest,
- (3) current revenue,
- (4) cesses due to Government,

- (7) current rent.

(ii) after clause 2 the following clause shall be added, namely :—

“ Clause 3 (1).—When the Court of Wards decides to withdraw from the charge of any property on the ground that, in its opinion, the property is insufficient to pay the liabilities of the proprietor, secured and unsecured, within a reasonable period, it may, upon notice to the proprietor, call a meeting of his creditors to elect not less than two trustees to administer the property.

Before exercising its discretion the Court of Wards shall wherever possible ascertain the views of the proprietor and his creditors.

Administration of Wards.

The Bengal Court of Wards Amendment Bill, 1935.

(Clauses 13, 14.)

(2) Upon the trustees, so elected or appointed, as the case may be, expressing their willingness to act as trustees the property shall, subject to the right of the Collector to attachment, collection and discharge of the liabilities mentioned in section 23, vest in them, in trust to administer it under the directions of such civil court as may be prescribed by rules for discharging the other liabilities of the proprietor and making over the residue, if any, to him. The Collector shall pay to the trustees, instead of to the proprietor or his agent, any surplus that remains in his hands. Notice of the withdrawal of the Court of Wards and the vesting of the property in the trustees shall be published in the manner provided in section 64A.

(3) Upon the vesting of the property in the trustees the charge of the Court of Wards shall be deemed to be withdrawn but the proprietor shall not become liable to arrest or imprisonment in execution of any decree or order for such liabilities.

(4) Any adjudication of claims by the Court of Wards or compromise under section 10D shall be binding in the same manner and to the same extent as if the Court of Wards had not withdrawn from charge of the property and as if the Civil Court had made such adjudication or recorded such compromise.

(5) The Civil Court shall have all the powers given by law, including the law of insolvency, for the administration of the said property and the trusts mentioned above and shall also have power to remove trustees and appoint new trustees.

Minute of dissent by Mr. D. J. Cohen, M.L.C.

Regarding the Howrah Bridge (Amendment) Bill, 1935, provision should be made in the Bill for exemption of land and buildings belonging to the Corporation of Calcutta, the South Suburban Municipality, and the Municipalities of Howrah, Tollygunge and Garden Reach, from the tax imposed by the Howrah Bridge Act, 1926. The provision in section 12 of the Howrah Bridge Act, 1926, does not give the Local Government power to exempt municipal properties from the taxation for the bridge, as the exercise of Government's powers is subject to the provisions of section 8.

• It is necessary that there should be such exemption, as otherwise, the municipalities and the public concerned, will be seriously affected as regards the borrowing capacity of the municipalities and in other respects.

Minute of dissent by Babu Jatindra Nath Basu, M.L.C.

Regarding the Howrah Bridge (Amendment) Bill, 1935, provision should be made in the Bill for exemption of land and buildings belonging to the Corporation of Calcutta, the South Suburban Municipality, and the Municipalities of Howrah, Tollygunge and Garden Reach, from the tax imposed by the Howrah Bridge Act, 1926. The provision in section 12 of the Howrah Bridge Act, 1926, does not give the Local Government power to exempt municipal properties from the taxation for the bridge, as the exercise of Government's powers is subject to the provisions of section 8.

It is necessary that there should be such exemption, as otherwise, the municipalities and the public concerned, will be seriously affected as regards the borrowing capacity of the municipalities and in other respects.

There should also be a provision enabling the Corporation to tax not only such property of the Bridge Commissioners as will yield income, but also such property as may belong to it and be used for offices or for quarters for staff. The Corporation will have to supply water and arrange for drainage and other amenities to such quarters.

Subject to the above, I sign the Report of the Select Committee.

Minute of dissent by Maulvi Muhammad Saadatullah, M.L.C.

I think that distinct provisions should be made in the proposed Bill to exempt the properties of the Howrah, Tollygunge, Garden Reach and South Suburban Municipalities and those of the Corporation of Calcutta which are exclusively used for public purposes and fetching no revenue from the levy of tax for the Howrah Bridge.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd September, 1935:—

L. A. BILL No. 30 OF 1935.

- A Bill to amend the Factories Act, 1934, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Factories Act, XXV of 1934, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is 1934.
hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

- 1. This Act may be called the Factories (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 43, Act
XXV of 1934.

- 2. In sub-section (1) of section 43 of the Factories Act, 1934, after the word "Chapter" the words "other than the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 45 and of the provisos to that sub-section," shall be inserted. XXV of 1934.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Factories Act, 1934, prohibits, save in very exceptional circumstances, the employment of women during the night hours; but women managers or supervisors or women employed in confidential capacities may be exempted by rule from this prohibition. The object of the proposed amendment is to remove that power of exemption and to bring the law into line with the International Labour Conventions relating to the employment of women during the night.

The relevant provisions of the Factories Act are given below for the convenience of Members.

Provided further that, in respect of any seasonal factory or class of seasonal factories in a specified area, the Local Government may make rules imposing a further restriction by defining the period or periods of the day within which women may be allowed to work, such that the period or periods so defined shall lie within the span fixed by clause (b) or under the above proviso and shall not be less than ten hours in the aggregate.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd September, 1935 :

L. A. BILL NO. 25 OF 1935.

A Bill further to amend the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, for a certain purpose

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, for the purpose hereinafter appearing ; It is hereby enacted as follows

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Provincial Insolvency (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 39, Act V of 1920.

2. In section 39 of the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920,— V of 1920.

- (a) the words "the Court shall frame a schedule in accordance with the provisions of section 33," shall be omitted ; and
- (b) for the words "entered in the said schedule so far as relates to any debts entered therein" the words "so far as relates to any debt due to them from the debtor and provable under this Act" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

There is judicial authority for the proposition that a composition under section 39 of the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (V of 1920), releases the insolvent only from debts entered in the schedule, but not from a debt in respect of which the creditor has not taken part in the insolvency proceedings ; whereas section 30 of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909 (III of 1909), releases the insolvent from all debts provable in insolvency. A comparison of section 44 of the former Act and section 45 of the latter Act indicates that the effect of an order of discharge is substantially the same under both Acts and there is no good reason why the effect of a compromise should not similarly be the same. This Bill is designed to assimilate the terms of section 39 of the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, to those of section 30 of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909.

• L. A. BILL NO. 27 OF 1935.

A Bill further to amend the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, for a certain purpose

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, for the purpose herein-after appearing : It is hereby enacted as follows :

Short title.                    1. This Act may be called the Provincial Small Cause Courts (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Amendment of section 17, Act IX of 1887.                    2. In the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, for the words "security to the satisfaction of the Court for the performance of the decree or compliance with the judgment as the Court may direct" the words "such security for the performance of the decree or compliance with the judgment as the Court may, on a previous application made by him in this behalf, have directed" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill is designed to remove certain doubts which have arisen in the interpretation of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887. As the section stands, an applicant is required to give security to the satisfaction of the Court at the time of presenting his application. It follows that, in order to ascertain what security satisfies the Court, the applicant must already have made an application in that behalf. There is also some doubt whether the words "as the Court may direct" apply to the deposit of the whole decretal amount as well as to the giving of approved security. The Bill is intended to make it clear that the preliminary application to ascertain what security will satisfy the Court must be made and decided before the substantive application for the order to set aside the decree, and that it is always open to the applicant to adopt the alternative course of depositing the total decretal amount.

* The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 50 of the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911), purports to set out all the penal deductions which may be made from the pay and allowances of a person subject to the Act, but sub-section (2) thereof makes no reference to the forfeiture of such pay as corps or working pay which can be awarded as a minor punishment by an officer exercising authority under section 20. It is now proposed to rectify this omission and, at the same time, to omit from the section the reference to suspension from pay which, owing to the deletion of clause (e) of section 43 by the Indian Army (Amendment) Act, 1934 (XXXIII of 1934), is no longer a punishment which can be awarded by a court-martial.

2. Opportunity is also being taken to rectify another omission by amending section 73 of the Act so as to empower a district court-martial to award to a warrant officer the sentences of forfeiture of seniority of rank, reprimand and severe reprimand on the analogy of section 182 of the Army Act (44 & 45 Vict. c. 58).

3. Section 103A of the Indian Army Act, empowers the Governor General in Council to order the detention of persons who, when brought to trial by a court-martial, are found to be of unsound mind and therefore incapable of making their defence, or are found to be " guilty but insane " at the time of committing the alleged offence. There is no provision, however, for the release of such persons. The Bill aims at filling this gap and brings the Indian Army Act exactly into line with the Code of Criminal Procedure in this respect.

accounts.

10. (1) The Committee shall keep accounts of all monies received and expended under section 8.

(2) Such accounts shall be examined and audited annually by auditors appointed in this behalf by the Governor General in Council; and such auditors shall have power to disallow any item which has, in their opinion, been expended otherwise than in pursuance of the purposes of this Act.

(3) If any item is disallowed, an appeal shall lie to the Governor General in Council, whose decision shall be final.

Dissolution of Committee.

11. The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that, with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification, the Committee shall be dissolved, and on the making of such declaration all funds and other property vested in the Committee shall vest in His Majesty and this Act shall be deemed to have been repealed.

Rules.

12. (1) The Governor General in Council may, after consulting the Committee, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the term of office of the members of the Committee and the circumstances in which, and the authority by which, members may be removed;
- (b) the conduct of business by the Committee and the number of members which shall form a quorum at meetings;
- (c) the maintenance by the Committee of a record of all business transacted and the submission of copies thereof to the Governor General in Council;
- (d) the preparation of annual estimates of receipts and expenditure; and
- (e) the form of accounts to be kept and the publication of an abstract of such accounts with the report of the auditor thereon.

Bye-laws.

13. The Committee may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, make bye-laws consistent with this Act and with the rules made thereunder to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the procedure to be followed at meetings of the Committee;
- (b) the travelling allowances of members of the Committee;
- (c) the appointment, promotion and dismissal of officers and servants of the Committee, and the creation and abolition of appointments of such officers and servants;
- (d) the grant of pay and leave to such officers and servants; and
- (e) any other matter in respect of which bye-laws may be made under this Act or rules made thereunder.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

For some time past the coffee growing interests in South India have been pressing upon the Government of India the desirability of imposing a cess on exports of coffee with a view to providing funds for the improvement and development of the Indian coffee industry. A canvass throughout the coffee growing areas has shown that a preponderating majority of the growers are in favour of this proposal, which also carries with it the support of the Governments of Madras, Coorg, Mysore, Travancore and Cochin. In these circumstances the Government of India have accepted the proposal and have introduced this Bill which seeks to impose on coffee exported from British India a cess at a rate not exceeding Re. 1 per cwt. The proceeds of the cess will constitute a fund which will be administered in the interests of the coffee growing industry by a thoroughly representative committee.

2. In view of the approaching separation of Burma from India, the Government of Burma desire that Burma should be excluded from the scope of the proposed legislation. The Government of India have accepted the views of the Local Government and have excluded that province from the scope of the Bill.

These changes cannot be brought about except by express legislation.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Cantonments Act, 1924, for certain purposes.

We, the undersigned, members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Cantonments Act, 1924, for certain purposes was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

2. Having examined the provisions of the Bill, we have come to the conclusion that radical alterations in its structure are necessary before we can recommend its acceptance by the Legislative Assembly.

3. Apart from a number of minor changes which are briefly explained in notes on individual clauses, there are four questions of major importance which we propose to discuss at greater length.

(1) Constitutional position of Local Governments.

4. While accepting the necessity for making it clear that with the inception of Provincial Autonomy, the authority of the Central Government must remain paramount as regards military administration, we consider that the present allocation of duties to Local Governments under the Cantonments Act is suitable, and will remain so, from the point of view of practical convenience.

5. The existing powers of superintendence, direction and control vested in the Governor General in Council depend on section 45(1) of the present Government of India Act, and we feel that we could not do better than to reproduce the wording in that section so that it will operate under the new constitution in respect of cantonment matters. The practical result will be to maintain the present relation between the Central and Local Governments under the new constitution in respect of cantonment matters only. We have, therefore, in place of old clause 75 of the Bill inserted a new clause 66 which introduces into the Act a new section 285A on the lines of section 45(1) of the present Government of India Act. At the same time we have removed from the Bill the following old clauses, which were designed to transfer specific functions of the Local Government to the Governor General in Council:—

Clauses 3, 4, 5, 8(b), 8(c), 9(b), 10, 11, 12, 13(a), 13(b), 14, 15(a)(i), 15(b)(ii), 15(c), 16(b)(ii), 17, 23, 24(b), 27 (second amendment), 29, 30(a), 30(c), 31, 32, 34, 42, 44(a), 44(b) [second amendment], 45, 47, 49(b), 52, 63, 64(c), 66 and 73.

(2) Cantonment Boards.

6. While agreeing that military interests in cantonments must predominate, if the area of each cantonment is taken as a whole, and that therefore the local bodies responsible for the administration of cantonments must continue to contain an official majority, we consider—

- (a) that statutory provision should be made for some representation of non-official interests in all cantonments, instead of only in a limited number as at present—in other words, that there should be a Board containing an elected element in every cantonment; and
- (b) that statutory provision should also be made whereby the detailed administration of bazaar areas (other than small regimental bazaars) should be left as far as possible to the elected representatives of the civil population, thereby relieving the official members of the Board of much work in which they are not directly interested.

7. We have given effect to these conclusions in clauses 4 and 16 of the Bill. Clause 4 substitutes five new sections for sections 10 to 14 of the Act. In proposed section 10, we have laid down the general principle that in every cantonment there should be a Board incorporated under proposed section 11. Proposed section 13 provides that in cantonments with a civil population of 2,500 upwards the membership of the Board, while retaining the official majority of one, should vary from 9 to 15 in proportion to the civil population. In smaller cantonments the section provides, in place of the "corporation sole" now prevailing, for a Board of three members, one of whom is to be elected.

We recognise that, in the case of—

- (a) military operations; or
- (b) serious administrative troubles,

it may be difficult to continue the administration of cantonments under the normal system of Boards proposed by us, and we, therefore, have made provision in proposed section 14 that, in the former case, the Governor General in Council on his own initiative, and, in the latter case, the Governor General in Council after consultation with the Local Government, may replace the Board in any cantonment by a Board consisting of 2 official members and one non-official nominated member. This arrangement, however, is limited to a normal term of one year, subject to extension by periods of not more than one year at a time after review by the Governor General in Council, and subject also to the condition that the Governor General in Council shall be bound forthwith to restore the normal regime if the extraordinary reasons necessitating its abrogation cease to exist.

8. These changes necessitate certain amendments throughout the Act and the Bill. Some are purely formal. Thus, the word "Board" has been substituted for "Cantonment Authority" throughout the Bill and the Act (vide new clause 68). Similar purely consequential changes are embodied in the following clauses of the Bill as re-drafted:—

Clauses 2(b), 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 13, 17(a) (i), 17(a) (ii) (2), 17(a) (ii) (3), 17 (b), 24, 30, 34, 37, 38, 39, 52, 54 and 58.

Of the above-mentioned new clauses, some are not entirely consequential:—

9. Clause 3.—The special power in section 9 of the Act of modifying the Act in its application in certain instances is now confined to cases where a Board is superseded under section 54 (when it is obviously essential) and to cantonments in Presidency-towns, which were previously regulated by the provisions of section 10(2)—now repealed—the interpretation of which was open to some doubt.

10. Clause 6.—It is obvious that the provision for a Vice-President in section 20(2) of the Act cannot apply to the new Boards of three members only.

11. Clause 9.—Provision has been made for an authority to prepare the electoral roll where the first Board has not as yet come into being.

12. Clause 13.—Clearly a special quorum is required for Boards of three members only.

Other amendments, not entirely consequential seem to us necessarily involved in the existence of a Board in every cantonment. They are:—

13. New clause 11(b)(i).—It is not clear that the mere substitution of "Board" for "Cantonment Authority" by clause 68 of the Bill as re-drafted would perpetuate the disability at present contained in section 28(2)(a) of the Act, which is a penal clause. Hence the amendment.

14. New clause 14.—Section 40, which relates to the appointment of a presiding officer in emergencies, is clearly inapplicable in its present form to a Board of three members only and we have suggested an appropriate modification.

15. New clause 62.—This is consequential on the omission by clause 4 of the Bill as re-drafted of existing section 10(2) of the Act.

16. New clause 16 of the Bill, as already stated, is designed to secure that the administration of bazaar areas should, as far as possible, be left to the elected members of Boards. We recognise that it is inappropriate to attempt to divest a statutory body like a Board of any of its responsibilities. We have however, made mandatory provision for the constitution of Bazaar Committees consisting of elected members only, trusting that their decisions will, in practice, be respected and upheld by the official majority. We also desire to express our hope that the Board as a whole, operating with an official majority, will delegate the widest possible duties and powers to these Committees. We have added a provision that such Committees may co-opt such ex-officio members as the Health Officer and Executive Engineer, if they desire their expert advice.

(3) Sanction to erection of buildings.

17. On the understanding that the intention of Government is not to assert its rights to cantonment lands in bazaar areas, we consider it reasonable that a service of Military Estates Officers should be maintained to manage other Government lands in cantonments and to protect the rights of Government therein. We are not, however, prepared to accept the provisions of clause 56 of the Bill as introduced. Proposed sub-sections (3) and (5) of section 181 of the Act, as inserted by that clause, are open to the criticism that the Military Estates Officer, by lodging an objection, can preclude the Cantonment Authority from granting sanction to build. We consider that it would suffice if proposed sub-section (3) is replaced by a provision, on the lines of section 193 (2) of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, that the Cantonment Authority may refuse such sanction where the site concerned belongs to Government and the consent of Government is not available, or where Government disputes the title to the site; and if proposed sub-section (5) is modified so as to provide that the Board should, in cases where the site is not under its management, make a previous reference to the Military Estates Officer in order to ascertain whether Government has any claim to urge. The Military Estates Officer, in our opinion, should be required to submit his reply within 15 days, and we have made provision to that effect (vide new clause 45).

(4) Bulk water supply by Government.

18. We accept the general principle that, where Government supplies water through the Military Engineer Services or the Public Works Department, such supply should be in bulk. We consider, however, that it should be optional for the Board to provide its own supply, whereas clause 67 of the Bill as introduced enabled the officer of Government to require the Cantonment Authority to take a bulk supply of water from Government. We have, therefore, in new clause 57 secured this option, with the proviso that such a supply, if taken, shall be in bulk. Whilst securing an option to the Board as a whole, we desire to express the hope that in practice the official majority will not overrule the wishes of the elected members.

19. We think, also, that some limitation should be placed on the cost to the consumer of water so supplied and have provided that it shall not exceed the corresponding cost in the nearest municipality, the rate paid for the water by the Board to Government being scaled down to admit of this. Proposed sub-section (2A) provides the necessary machinery for adjusting disputes which are likely to arise in connection with a technical subject of this nature.

20. Other changes made by us in the Bill are discussed clause by clause:—

New clause 2(a).—We consider it desirable to qualify the word "structure" by the word "roofed". Otherwise its application would be altogether too comprehensive.

New clause 2(c).—We are satisfied that the redraft of the definition of "entitled consumer" is more workable from the administrative point of view than that in the Bill as introduced.

New clause 2(g).—We do not accept the principle of constructive occupation of premises through domestic servants, and have omitted references thereto.

Old clause 2(h).—The definition of "tax" in the Bill as introduced is likely to lead to complications in respect of the power to impose rates, and we have deleted it, replacing it by an amendment of section 102 of the Act (vide new clause 32).

New clause 4 (proposed section 12).—We accept the proposal that Executive Officers should in future be appointed from a Service of Executive Officers to be constituted and controlled by Government. We consider, however, that Government should share equally with the Boards the expense of the salaries of these officers; especially as, even if this recommendation is accepted, there will still be a substantial saving to Government as against the existing system.

We desire also to express the hope that Government, in framing rules for this new service under proposed section 280 (2) (cc)—new clause 64 of the Bill—will provide that, so far as possible, disciplinary effect will be given to the expressed wishes of a Board as regards its Executive Officer.

New clause 5.—We understand that the intention was to prolong the term of office of the elected members of a Board all together, not individually. We also consider that such extension should be limited to a period of one year. We have provided accordingly.

Old clauses 13 (c), 15 (a) (ii), 18, 19, 20, 35 and 55.—We understand that Government do not attach importance to these provisions of the Bill, and recommend their deletion.

New clause 10.—We see no reason why the electoral qualification laid down in section 27 (1) (b) (iii) should not be extended to persons who have passed the Matriculation or equivalent examination of any University. We have also shortened the period of disqualification under the proposed second proviso to section 27 (2) from five to three years.

New clause 21.—We consider that a decision of a Board should not be cancelled or modified without opportunity being given to the Board for showing cause against such cancellation or modification.

New clause 22.—In our opinion the initiating authority for taxation in cantonments should, as in most municipalities, be the Board with the previous sanction of the Local Government, and not the Local Government.

New clause 32.—See note on old clause 2(h)

New clause 53(c).—We have provided that the fee for a licence should not exceed the actual cost of issuing the licence.

New clause 56.—This supplies an omission in the Bill to provide an amendment to section 234 of the Act consequential on the proposals contained in new clause 57 of the Bill.

21. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 6th April, 1935.

22. We consider that the alterations made by us in the Bill necessitate its republication and circulation for public opinion. We recognise that, in view of the radical revision of the Bill in Select Committee, modifications thereof may be required in the light of opinions obtained in the process of circulation.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th September, 1935:—

L. A. BILL No. 34 OF 1935

A Bill to provide for the removal of Social Disabilities among certain classes of Hindus.

WHEREAS it is increasingly felt by the Hindu community that the disabilities, which are imposed by social custom and usage on certain classes of Hindus commonly known as Harijans, Untouchables, Backward communities and Depressed Classes, and which have been in certain matters even legally recognised in the adjudication of rights and duties in civil and criminal proceedings, are repugnant to modern conditions and ideas of justice and social solidarity and should no longer be recognised by law or otherwise enforced, but should be severely discouraged;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Removal of Civic Disabilities Act, 1935.

(2) It shall apply to the whole of British India.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67(2) of the Government of India Act.

Social disabilities not to be recognised by law.

2. Notwithstanding any law, custom, usage or prescription, to the contrary, no subject of His Majesty resident in British India shall, by reason merely of his belonging to any particular community or class among the Hindus known as Harijans, Untouchables, Depressed Class or Backward class or the like, be prevented or disabled from being appointed to any public office or enjoying or having access to any stream, river, public well, tank, pathway, convenience, or transport or any other service which the general public belonging to all other classes of Hindus have a right to enjoy or have access to or which is dedicated or maintained or licensed for the use of the general public, or which is maintained or paid for out of the funds of the State or local statutory authority.

And no Civil, Criminal or Revenue Court or public or local authority shall in adjudicating any matter or executing any order or carrying on the affairs entrusted to such authority recognise any usage or prescription under which it is sought to impose any civic disability or penalty on any person by reason of his belonging to any of the communities aforesaid, or by reason of any acts or omissions on the part of such person which would not furnish grounds for such penalty or disability if he did not belong to such community.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The custom of segregation of certain Hindu classes as outcaste and untouchable and the social and other disabilities they suffer under in consequence of such custom have been the subject matter of universal condemnation. There has been continuous agitation on the part of the leaders of these Depressed Classes as they have been commonly called, as well as on the part of the reformers among the main body of Hindus to put an end to this custom of untouchability and to the disabilities arising therefrom. Recent events have brought this agitation to a head and there is at present a great wave of feeling throughout India for the removal of the disabilities of these Depressed Classes which in the interest of humanity and general welfare advantage should be taken of by the State. It is therefore desirable that a general law should be passed prohibiting the recognition of any rights, or disabilities arising out of the usage regarding untouchability, either in civil or criminal Courts.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th September, 1935:—

L. A. BILL No. 36 of 1935.

A Bill to recognise and remove doubts as to the validity of inter-marriages current among Arya Samajists.

WHEREAS it is expedient to recognise and place beyond doubt the validity of inter-marriages of Arya Samajists; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Arya Marriage Validation Act, 1935.

(2) It shall apply to the whole of British India and shall apply to all cases that may come up for decision after the passing of this Act whether the marriage in question took place before or after the passing of this Act.

Definition.

2. For the purpose of this Act "Arya Samajist" means a person who:—

- (a) is a member of any Arya Samaj; or
- (b) within five years of the passing of this Act or within one year of his marriage (whichever period expires last) executes a written document declaring himself to be Arya Samajist or in terms equivalent thereto; or
- (c) is a member of the family of, or a relative dependent on, or a person under the guardianship of, any person mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b).

Explanation.—Where a document mentioned in clause (b) is registered under the Indian Registration Act, 1908, it shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of his being an Arya Samajist and no evidence shall be admissible to prove the contrary. XVI of 1908.

Marriage between Arya Samajists not to be invalid.

3. No marriage between Arya Samajists shall be invalid or shall be deemed ever to have been invalid by reason of the parties having belonged to different castes or sub-castes of Hindus or to different religions, any law or usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Succession.

4. For purposes of succession all inter-marriages referred to in section 3 of this Act shall be deemed to be marriages between persons of the same caste of (Dwijas) the twice born Hindus.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) (b) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

As the Arya Samajists who form quite an appreciable number of the Indian population conscientiously believe that the present caste system is not in accordance with their scriptures, the Vedas and the sacred Shastras and as according to the law as administered at present marriages between parties belonging by birth to different castes or sub-castes are considered invalid and there is a fear of the issue of such marriages being declared illegitimate and as quite a large number of such marriages have taken place and more would have taken place had there been no such obstacle, it is necessary to have a law which would give relief to the Arya Samajists. Hence the above law is proposed.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th September, 1935:—

L. A. BILL NO. 37 OF 1935.

A Bill to validate marriages between different castes of Hindus.

WHEREAS it is expedient to validate marriages between Hindus of different castes for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.           1. This Act may be called the Hindu Marriage Validity Act, 19

Validity of marriages among Hindus.           2. No marriage among Hindus shall be invalid by reason that the parties thereto do not belong to the same caste, any custom or any interpretation of Hindu Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) (b) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

- Under the Hindu Law as interpreted, marriages between Hindus of different castes are held illegal. This interpretation, besides being open to question, has caused serious hardship in individual cases and is calculated to retard the progress of the community.
- The Bill, therefore, seeks to provide that such marriages shall not be invalid.

(ii) sub-section (2) shall be omitted.

13. Upon conviction under this Act and in addition to the penalties provided therein, the Court may require the husband of a female child (or, if he be a minor, the person having charge of him in any capacity whatsoever) to furnish a bond, with or without sureties, for the separate living, custody and maintenance of the wife and for preventing the consummation of the marriage until she ceases to be a child or until such later date as the Court may appoint.
14. A bond taken under section 11 or section 13 of this Act shall be deemed to be a bond taken under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, v of 1898, and the provisions of Chapter XLII of that Code shall apply accordingly."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Act to which it refers (commonly known as the Sarda Act) by three provisions aimed at facilitating the more effective enforcement of the Act:—

First by putting it beyond question that the Courts empowered to take proceedings under the Act may at their discretion issue an injunction prohibiting a marriage arranged in contravention of the Act.

Already Civil Courts in Bombay Presidency are known in several cases to have issued injunction orders against marriages known to have been arranged in contravention of the Act. It is not known whether similar action has been taken in any other Province. But since doubts have been thrown upon the legality or practicability of this method, it seems desirable to remove such doubts by providing for it directly through the proposed amendment. The draft Bill proposes to impose a higher maximum penalty for the breach of such an injunction than the penalty provided in the Act in the case of prosecutions after the marriage has already taken place, on the ground that breach of a Court injunction involves contempt of Court.

Secondly, by permitting the Court to take proceedings under the Act upon its own motion, without requiring the execution of a bond or taking security.

It is known that one of the principal impediments to the enforcement of the Sarda Act at present lies in the obligation placed upon the complainant to incur the publicity of a formal complaint and, if required by the Court to execute a bond, to incur also the risk of losing the sum mentioned in the bond. The proposed amendment would enable the Court to proceed upon information obtained privately after taking such steps as it might think necessary to satisfy itself of the correctness of the information.

Thirdly, by enabling the Court to require the husband of a child wife (or if he is a minor, his guardian) to make provision for the separate custody and maintenance of the child wife and to refrain from consummating the marriage until she reaches the legal age for marriage, or until a later date if it thinks necessary.

A provision of this kind was recommended by the Age of Consent Committee (commonly called the Joshi Committee), page 198, paragraph 23. In default of such a provision, those who have the welfare of an illegally married child wife at heart are often deterred from prosecuting the offenders by the knowledge that the prosecution, even if successful, will not rescue the child from the dangers of premature marital intercourse and may actually cause her to be maltreated by the husband or his family in revenge for the prosecution.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th September, 1935:—

L. A. BILL No. 39 of 1935.

A Bill to make provision for the application of the Moslem Personal Law (Shariat) to Moslems in British India.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the application of the Moslem Personal Law (Shariat) to Moslems in British India; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Moslem Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1935.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India including British Baluchistan.

Application of Personal Law to Moslems.

2. Notwithstanding any custom, usage or law to the contrary, in all questions regarding succession, special property of females, betrothal, marriage, divorce, maintenance, dower, adoption, guardianship, minority, bastardy, family relations, wills, legacies, gifts, partitions, any religious usage or institution including Wakf (trust and trust property), the rule of decision in cases where the parties are Moslems shall be the Moslem Personal Law (Shariat).

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) (b) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

For several years past it has been the cherished desire of the Muslims of British India that Customary Law should in no case take the place of Muslim Personal Law. The matter has been repeatedly agitated in the press as well as on the platform. The Jamiat-ul-Ulema-i-Hind, the greatest Moslem religious body has supported the demand and invited the attention of all concerned to the urgent necessity of introducing a measure to this effect. Customary Law is a misnomer inasmuch as it has not any sound basis to stand upon and is very much liable to frequent changes and cannot be expected to attain at any time in the future that certainty and definiteness which must be the characteristic of all laws. The status of Muslim women under the so-called Customary Law is simply disgraceful. All the Muslim Women Organisations have therefore condemned the Customary Law as it adversely affects their rights. They demand that the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) should be made applicable to them. The introduction of Muslim Personal Law will automatically raise them to the position to which they are naturally entitled. In addition to this the present measure, if enacted, would have very salutary effect on society because it would ensure certainty and definiteness in the mutual rights and obligations of the public. Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) exists in the form of a veritable code and is too well known to admit of any doubt or to entail any great labour in the shape of research, which is the chief feature of Customary Law.

3. After section 16 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“16A. (1) Offences punishable under this Act (other than offences under sections 3, 5, 6 and 7 and such offences against rules made under this Act as the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, have declared to be non-compoundable) shall, with the permission of the Court, be compoundable, either before or after the appearance of the accused, on payment by the accused of such sum, not exceeding the maximum amount of fine with which the offences are made punishable by this Act, as the Court may determine.

(2) The composition of an offence under this section shall have the effect of a conviction of the accused with whom the offence has been compounded.”

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In 1932, the Government of the United Provinces appointed a Committee to consider the taxation of road traffic. That Committee recommended inter alia that purely technical offences under the Indian Motor Vehicles Act, 1914 (VIII of 1914), or the rules made thereunder should be compoundable at the option of the alleged offender. The Bill seeks to give effect to this recommendation. It is thought that offences under sections 3, 5, 6 and 7 of the Act should not be made compoundable, and as regards offences against the rules made by Local Governments under section 11 of the Act, it is proposed to leave it to them to notify what such offences are to be made non-compoundable. Other offences should be made compoundable, with the permission of the Court, either before or after the appearance of the accused in the Court, for a sum not exceeding the maximum amount of fine for the offence concerned. Such composition should count as a conviction, and the driver's licence will be liable to be endorsed under sub-section (2) of section 18. The machinery for composition of offences is left to be governed by rules to be made under the Act.

Some difficulty has been experienced as to the periods for which endorsements on drivers' licences should subsist. It is proposed to leave the matter to be regulated by rules made by Local Governments under section 11 of the Act.
